

Halton Scenery Reminds Visiting Lass of Home

Halton county is not so vastly different from Scotland," according to Miss Janette Wilson. As a delegate for the Scottish Association of Young Farmer's Clubs, she is spending two weeks on an exchange visit with Ontario's Young Farmer. Linda Linham of Southbroke Farm on the edge of Etobicoke.

Janette comes from Nollston in Renfrew County, Scotland, where her family owns a 353-acre farm with 50 Ayrshire milkers and 150 sheep. At 21 years old she is finished school and works in a bank.

She has been involved with Young Farmers for close to five years, and this is her first exchange trip abroad.

Since she arrived in Canada at the beginning of April she has visited farms in Simcoe and Lambton counties. "Every county has something special to show," says Janette. "I am having a high old time."

"There is a similarity to home here, in general habits and landscape," she says. I am going to visit an Ayrshire farm so I can make a comparison."

When she is in Halton, the Linhams plan to drive Janette around and show her the points of interest.

They were brought over in a week-long cruise by boat. "We were all sick," admits Janette. She leaves June 14th.

PIONEER GIRLS GET AWARDS

Badges and awards were presented to the Pioneer Girls of Maple Avenue Baptist Church during their annual banquet last Friday evening.

Mrs. W. Rochester made the badge presentation to the Colonists, with Darlene Ezard being awarded an all expense paid camp weekend on June 14 and Laurie Hyde also received a like award.

The guest speaker, Mrs. O. Brewster, an energetic worker nearing the completion of all in Pioneer Girls in Guelph, and the many mothers present were entertained by presentations by both groups. The Colonists presented a musical number and the Pilgrims put on a demonstration of musical callisthenics.

ner badge requirements for Colonists.

Mrs. C. Hutchison is seen above presenting Patti Styles of the Pilgrims group with badges she had earned. Outstanding pilgrim for the year was Phil-lips Walker, not present, who successfully completed all Pil-grim badges and several advanced Pilgrim tests.
