Short skirts have a tendency to make men polite. Have you ever seen a man get on a bus ahead of one.

THE MAIL BAG

Lots of Water But Not in Right Place

34 Ewing Street, June 20th, 1968.

Dear Sir:

I am glad to see you had the space in your paper for my poem last week. I appreciated this very much. I do not want to be a bore, but I think this spring of mine is going to be a thorn in the town's side if it's not put back on its natural course.

So if you can spare a little more space in your valuable paper I would like you to print this for me.

SAVE THE PENNIES AND SPEND THE DOLLARS

A university student I could not be. But common sense I have, you'll see.

Into my backyard with level and stand. Taking the grade and lie of the land.

Facts and figures they worked out on paper. And my backyard still dry and they will not waver. Now the dry season is on and no water, they mutter. When all my cold spring runs down the gutter.

The storm sewer is full with water and grit. They keep emptying out like a bottomless pit. Now they may laugh when the contract is done. This little feud they think they have won. Now my spring is still flowing and the sewer full still. Well who do you think is paying the bill?

Had Cooksville Business—Mrs. Alice Smedley Dies

Funeral service took place in St. George's Anglican Church, June 20 for Mrs. Alice Jane Campbell Smedley, 67, who died in Georgetown hospital June 18.

A native of London, England, she had been in Canada since 1947 joining her daughters here, war brides of Canadian soldiers. She first lived in Oakville where she worked at General Stampings, then moved to Cooksville where for several years she owned her own business, Alice's Jewellery.

When her health failed she gave up her business, stayed for awhile with her daughter, Mrs. Aurel Bourque, later admitting herself to Halton Central Manor at Milton. Mr. and Mrs. Bourque decided she would be happier living at home and she returned to town recently to live with them at 131 Raylawn Crescent. Although almost completely paralyzed for the past few years she always had an encouraging word and smile for everyone and she gathered and made many friends throughout her life.

Funeral service was conducted by the Rev. Eric Mills and interment was in Greenwood Cemetery. Pallbearers were Clarence Smith, Hamilton, George Comber, Milton, Myeull Bourque, Manuel Lima, James Jenkins and Bob Warren. Larry Wood Cox of Toronto was an honorary pallbearer.
