

Lucky Sixpence in Shoe, For School Teacher Bride

MR. AND MRS. JIM BLAIR

Wearing a full length plisse gown with portrait neckline and short sleeves, Jacqueline Jill Runham became the bride of James Blair in a March 18th ceremony in St. John's United Church. Rev. Robert Scrivens officiated.

The bride, a member of Harrison Public School teaching staff, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Runham, 12 Parkway Blvd., wore a lucky sixpence in her shoe, a gift of Mrs. Dennis Brown and carried a single pink rose. Neck and sleeves of her wedding gown were trimmed with pearls. The gown fell from the bodice in a straight line in front and was gathered at the back of the neckline, falling into soft folds around the aquilated sides and extending to a full train. A headpiece of fleur-de-lis pearls matched the trim of the dress and she wore a full-length single tier veil.

Standards of white mums, pink gladiolus and ferns decorated the church; Bernard Shrubsole was organist and Miss Barbara Evans sang Wedding Prayer and Ave Maria.

Miss Elizabeth Davidson was maid of honour and Misses Ginny Terry and Gaye Robertson, Brampton, were bridesmaids. They wore full length gowns of shell-pink silk wool, matching capes edged with a ruffle trim. Their headpieces were looped green silk shantung jacket and dress, a green flowered hat and a corsage of yellow roses.

For a honeymoon trip to Niagara Falls, the bride chose a red wool suit with tunic style jacket and Persian lamb collar, black accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The groom who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Blair, 34 Hewson Crescent, is employed with Domtar Fine Papers. They are living in the Centennial Court apartments.

Prior to her marriage, the bride was feted at showers, given by Mrs. Ruth Townsend, Cheltenham; Mrs. Mabel Seltzer, field, Brampton; Mrs. Mary Runham, Brampton; Mrs. Dennis Brown and Mrs. Douglas Davidson, Georgetown; Misses Ginny Terry and Elizabeth Davidson. A trousseau tea was held at the bride's home.

Bride's Home at Erin Spring Wedding Setting

A spring wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard H. Winters, Erin, on May 11th when their daughter Margaret became the bride of Hugh Hunter, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hunter of Terra Cotta.

Rev. E. Hawkes of Bluevale, Ontario, officiated at the ceremony, in which the marriage ring was the bride's grandmother's.

Wedding music, pre-recorded on tape with Mrs. William Wheeler, sister of the groom, at the organ, was played.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a full length white embossed satin gown featuring a portrait neckline and three quarter length sleeves. A cathedral length train flowed gracefully from the waistline. Her full shoulder-length veil fell from a lace wedding ring band headpiece, and she carried a bouquet of red roses, white stephanotis and trailing ivy.

Miss Marilyn Winters and Miss Kathryn Winters, sisters of the bride wore white lace over satin featuring rounded necklines and tiny sleeves, embroidered with gardenias. The headpieces of blue matched their shoes, and they carried nosegays of pink carnations with blue cornflowers.

Mr. Bill Hunter was best man for his brother, and Mr. Steve Winters, cousin of the bride, ushered.

For the reception at Hilltop Lodge, the bride's mother received the guests wearing a blue lace dress, navy accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother assisted, wearing a green linen dress with matching coat, white accessories, and a corsage of yellow roses.

For a honeymoon trip to Ottawa and eastern Ontario, the bride donned a white wool suit with black accessories. Her corsage was of white stephanotis and red roses. A bow shaped pin adorned her suit, the gift of the groom. Before their departure the bride and groom went to Terra Cotta where the bride's bouquet was given to the groom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Hughes, who were unable to attend the wedding. The young couple will reside in Burks Falls. Prior to her marriage, Margaret was guest of honour at several bridal showers given by Mrs. Shirley Rogerson, her aunt, of Clarkson, neighbours Mrs. L. Davidson, Mrs. B. Hebbes and Mrs. Gordon Gregson at the latter's home, Erin, and by Mrs. E. Denny as hostesses.

School Bus Fee Will Help Museum Finances

The Halton Museum in the Kelso Conservation Area will charge $5 per bus for school children from Halton visiting the museum complex, and $10 per bus for school visitors from outside the county.

New Fee
 The new fee structure was approved by county council despite the protests of Acton

Reeve Herbert Hinton, who said that some children might not be able to afford to go on field trips to the museum if two or three children in the same family all had to come up with the money on the same day.

Warden Bill Hunter, explained that the various education boards in the county put aside money each year for such field trips, and so the students would not have to pay out of their own pockets.

Milton's Deputy Reeve, Ron Harris said the costs of operating the museum — which has just opened another display

Schools are making more use of the museum exhibits to fit in with classroom studies, Nasagaweya Deputy Reeve Bill Hoy said it often takes extra work to set up special exhibits for the visiting students.

The main building now has three full floors of exhibits, and a new building which will house all types of transportation once used in Halton was officially opened last weekend.

County council approved motions from the museum board to have the museum opened to the public six days a week, from 2 p.m. to 6 p.m. during the nine weeks of July and August. The museum will be closed Tuesdays.

Also, the museum this year will have eight guides for the summer months.

The museum will remain open until the first of November on a daily basis — and will be open the first two weeks of that month. It will reopen again during the last two weekends of April, and start daily hours May 1st next year.

The museum may also be open at other times by special arrangement with the museum board.
