GLEN WILLIAMS

Robert Beaumont Dies Glen Man's Cousin

The United Church Women held their July meeting Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Fred Engelby. The opening exercises were taken by Mrs. Paul Wagstaffe. Items of business discussed included the results of the strawberry tea held Saturday, a cleaning bee to be held Thursday at the church and the purchasing of a lawn mower so that various families can take turns at cutting the church lawn. Discussion followed about the planning of the church service which the ladies will be in charge of on Sunday in August. Mrs. A. Hunsdale read an article entitled "With a Little Bit of Luck". Dessert and coffee was served by the hostess.

As a result of the experience in the water when the school children were on a trip to Kelso, Lynn Hooper is still under the doctor's care and it seems she was in the swimming pool when the near drowning occurred and did not slip into water from the path as I previously understood. The lifeguard said the water was really too cold for Lynn and so she felt she had likely developed the cramp.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Starret and family spent the weekend at Wasaga Beach.

We send get well wishes to Don Atkins, Confederation St. who is a patient in Georgetown Hospital.

At the United Church morning worship service the Christening took place of little Carol Anne daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Heinz Steinfeld. Her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Burton MacDonald and aunt, Joyce of Ajax were here for the service and took part in a lawn bowling tournament in town on Saturday.

We extend sincere sympathy to Mrs. T. Dillon of the tenth line in the death of her mother Mrs. C. Wettlaufer of Stratford in her 93rd year. The funeral took place Wednesday from the Heinbuck Funeral Home in Stratford.

The death occurred last week in Toronto of Robert Beaumont son of the late George Beaumont who was well known to the older residents of the Glen. He leaves his wife and daughter, Nancy and mother, Mrs. George Beaumont and sisters, Emma and Vera and brother, Brock. He is a cousin of Mr. Arthur Beaumont.

On farms around the village, haying is in full swing—getting caught up for all the wet weather earlier in the season—but we do hope this heat wave lets up soon. It is so very hard on the men who have to work out in the sun.

In Memoriam

MENALLY — Gordon Kelly, 25 Victoria Street, beloved son of Mrs. Mary E. Morrow and the late Hugh G. McNally, who passed away July 24, 1967.

One year has passed, tis hard to believe And still I cannot help but grieve. He was so kind and good to me I miss him more than one can see.

Many a time he went away, But yet it was not long to stay But now he has gone from my door Never to return no more. Oh it was a dreadful sight To see him carried out that night.

I thought my heart would break in two, And I wished that God would take me too. Lord teach me how to live and pray, That I may not be cast away, That when my work on earth is done That I may hear the Lord say come.

Sadly missed by mother.

MOORE — In loving memory of our dear mother and grandmother, Lily Moore who passed away July 21, 1959.

A mother who gave us the best years of her life. Who cherished our secrets. Our sorrow and strife. Who taught us to love And taught us to pray Dear mother in heaven God bless you today. Your life was unselfish For others you lived. Not for what you received But for what you could give. Just a loving thought, Just a silent tear, A beautiful memory Of a mother so dear.

Sadly missed and fondly remembered by Alvin, Marie, Eileen and Helen and families.
