Barbershoppers Win Praise For Two Recent Engagements

Georgetown Chapter of the Barbershoppers has had two recent engagements which brought them many compliments.

Entering a float in the Flower Festival in Brampton the group got a good reception from the huge crowd which lined the route.

And a week ago Tuesday, they went to Acton to perform at a senior citizens evening in the Anglican parish hall. Members were pleased to be complimented by an Acton resident Jack Carpenter who for 5 years was a B.C. producer in England. Mr. Carpenter said he had heard the Barbershoppers on numerous occasions and the Acton performance topped them all.

The group which is now under the direction of Don Gillespie, Prince Charles Dr., is anxious to have more members

Minor Blazes Call Firemen Three Times

The fire siren wailed three times this week, twice to minor fires and once to a boy caught in an elevator.

Thursday evening, right after the regular practice time, firemen were called to a stove fire on Rexway Drive. However, the residents had managed to get it out before firemen arrived.

Saturday, the men were called to Centennial Apartments, at the corner of Maple and Guelph, where a boy was stuck between floors in an elevator. They had him out almost immediately.

Sunday afternoon, the coal bunker which served the now defunct 'lower' paper mill was the scene of the fire.
