

Become Galt Residents After Wedding in Town

MR. AND MRS. JOHN KEA

Now making their home in Galt, Linda Dianne Hyde and John Adrian Kea were married in Holy Cross R.C. Church on June 29th.

The bride was given in marriage by her father in the double ring ceremony performed by Rev. Martin Vander Steen. Mr. Redmond was organist. Standards of white gladioli and tangerine carnations decorated the church.

The bride chose a dove white full length gown of silk organza over taffeta. The gown had an A-line skirt, empire bodice with wisw embroidery and a front panel, scoop neckline and illypoint sleeves. The removable coat had a wide insertion of matching embroidery down the back forming a chapel train. Tailored bows on each shoulder added interest. She wore a matching camelot hat of silk organza which held a short bouffant veil of tulle illusion. She carried a nosegay of orange delight and white roses. In her shoe she wore a lucky three-piece, gift of a friend, Mrs. Valerie Walters, Bramalea. She wore the groom's gift, a necklace.

Mrs. Ron Lavell, London was matron of honour; her sister Debbie Hyde and Ellen Biehn were bridesmaids, and her niece, Laurie Hyde was junior bridesmaid.

The four attendants were gowned in full length cotton or worsted gowns of mango orange, with A-line skirts and empire bodices defined by intricate seamings. The gowns were sleeveless with scoop necklines, and featured elbow length capes bordered with a gathered flounce of matching material. Their flowers were nosegays of tangerine and white carnations.

Albert Kea, Cobocok, was his brother's groomsman. Ushers were the bride's brother Robert and Robert Kerr and Paul Grayson of Toronto.

A wedding dinner at Georgetown Golf & Country Club was followed by an evening dance party. Receiving guests, the bride's mother wore an A-line dress of lace over taffeta in honey beige colour accented with apple green accessories, and a corsage of apple green carnations. The groom's mother, who also received, wore a two-piece coat and dress in mint green linen, white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Guests attended from Atlanta, Georgia; Bramalea, Galt, Collingwood, Gravenhurst, Beaverton, Cobocok, Lindsay, Sunderland, Oshawa, Ottawa, Brantford, London, Toronto, Orillia, Burlington, Hamilton and Georgetown.

For a honeymoon trip to Kingston, Ottawa and the Thousand Islands the bride wore a coral linen two-piece dress and jacket with matching hat in white and coral and a white gardenia corsage.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Kea, R. R. 2, Collingwood and is employed in Galt with Highview Motors. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Hyde, 18 Queen Street, was employed with National Greasers Co. Ltd. before her marriage.

Prior to her marriage showers were given by Mrs. Ron Lavell and Ellen Biehn at the latter's home on Queen Street, and by Mrs. George Evans, Mrs. W. R. (Bud) Hyde and Mrs. Gordon Harley. The bride and her sister, visiting from Atlanta, Georgia were guests at a luncheon given by their aunt, Mrs. Ern Hyde. Bride and groom received lovely gifts from their places of employment.

Guelph Couple Honoured on 25th Anniversary With Reception, Dinner

A Guelph couple, Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Hayward, both former residents of Terra Cotta were honoured on their 25th wedding anniversary at a reception held by Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Israel at their home on Spring Street, Guelph. Mr. and Mrs. Hayward, both past presidents of the Guelph Horticultural Society, are active in horticulture circles there, and over 70 members of the society called to offer congratulations.

Mrs. Tom Hayward, Mrs. Grace Webster and Miss Mabel Stewart presided over the attractive tea table which was centred with an arrangement of pink carnations, and white chrysanthemums, flanked by silver candles in silver holders. Mrs. Hayward was presented with a trillium teaspoon. The guests were served by Mrs. Allan Hayward and Mrs. James Matheson. Mrs. H. E. Markle, Mrs. L. A. Birk and Miss Gladys Templeman assisted at the tea table.

Another event in their honour was a family party at the home of Mrs. Hayward's sister, Mrs. Elsie Puckering, in Terra Cotta.

Floral arrangements for the occasion were made by Mrs. Grace Webster and the table was centred with a three-tier cake made by Mrs. Puckering who had made their wedding cake 25 years ago. It was decorated by Mrs. Stuart Puckering.

Guests included Mrs. Puckering and Norman Iam, the
