

Fun for Kids, Training for Leaders All Part of 'Y' Summer Camp

Between sixty five and eighty-five children are finding relief from that summer vacation boredom at the Y.M.C.A. summer playground, held three mornings a week at Cedarvale Community Centre.

Ranging in ages from five to twelve the children play games, use the swings and slides, or try their skill at various handicrafts taught by the leaders.

The leaders are all teenagers. Under the leadership of Paul Kirkwood, they are Diane Kirkwood, Susan Collett, Margaret Van Sicker, Shirley Levers, Helen Dunlop, Eva Katterwa, Bernice Griffiths, Patricia Zorge, Stephanie Lester and two boys, Rick Chaplin and Dave Long. While Jim Makela, the Y.M.C.A. program director, set up the summer playground, the teenagers themselves run the whole show. In this way two aims of the 'Y' are achieved, the youngsters have received leadership training.

The program, which runs till the end of August, was helped by a twenty-five dollar grant from council, and the use of the grounds and the building by the Cedarvale Board.

Flies to Germany to Attend Son's Wedding

Mrs. R. M. Watson of Brampton has returned home from an enjoyable two weeks trip to Germany where she attended the wedding of their son Cpl. George Watson to Sandra Elizabeth Marshall. The wedding took place at St. Boniface Church, Fort York, Germany, on Saturday, July 27th followed by a reception at the Old Red

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Georgetown Fire Department also chipped in to help defray the operating costs, such as materials for the games and crafts, while Beaumont Knitting Co. Ltd. and the Halton Coop donated other materials.

George has been stationed with the 2 R.C.R. Battalion at Fort York, Germany for the past couple of years.

Mrs. Watson flew from Malton Airport by Air Canada to Frankfurt and then on to Dusseldorf where she was met by George and friends in Germany. She stayed at George's apartment at Korbbecke, near Sonest, while the young couple were on their honeymoon in Barcelona, Spain. While in Germany she enjoyed sightseeing and visiting spots of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Marshall of Fort Churchill, Man., parents of the bride, also flew to Germany to attend the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. William Laidlaw, both Paul and Carol Ann spent a week at the Dunlop cottage at Huntsville early in August. While there they enjoyed a day at Algonquin Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Laidlaw enjoyed a week at the Jack Fraser cottage at Lake Simcoe recently.
