BAHA'ULLAH

One hundred years ago one voice forecast the spiritual breakdown now afflicting our world — and gave us the solution to it. The series of events that surrounded that Speaker's life constitute the most remarkable story in man's spiritual history. It is the story of Baha'ullah. You owe it to yourself to read it. Write BAHAI, Box 164, Oakville, Ontario. There is no cost or obligation.

BALLINAPAP

Lightening Strikes, Just Misses Couple in Home

The Frank Smiths got off very lucky on Tuesday night. During the severe thunderstorm their house was struck with lightning. It was 11.15 p.m. Fortunately, the TV had just been disconnected and the radio. They were just going to retire for the night.

There was a terrific explosion, the house was plunged into darkness (except for the sparks flying.) Upon investigating, it was found a tree near the house had been struck and the bolt travelled along the clothes line which was attached to the tree and the woodshed. It jumped from the woodshed and blew through the brick wall into the kitchen, just about three feet from where Mr. and Mrs. Smith were standing.

There was some work done in Providence cemetery this past week, when a group of volunteers spread more fill in the hollows and a load of compost was spread over that.

Friends and former neighbours of the late John A. Bulloch were shocked to hear of his sudden death in a car accident on Friday. We extend sympathy to Mrs. Bulloch and family.

A visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Reg French was Mrs. French's brother, Mr. Edwin (Tone) of Portuguese Cove, Nova Scotia.

Mrs. Richard Shortell was in Toronto for a few days, last week visiting her daughter Lilian.

Mr. and Mrs. William McDonald invited old friends and senior citizens to a picnic at their home on Saturday. All had a very enjoyable get-together.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hurren and daughter, Irene are visiting the Lloyd Marshalls. Mr. Hurren is Mrs. Marshall's uncle. This is the first time they have met as he left Erin for 15 years in 1904 and this is his first visit back. Out of a family of ten he is the last surviving member. They have many nieces and nephews in this vicinity.
