

EMBARKS ON CAREER AS ARMED FORCES OFFICER

FIRST STEP ON THE ROAD TO A CAREER as an officer in the Canadian Armed Forces is taken by Dennis Stief, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Stief, 44 Main St. N., Georgetown, as he is sworn in as an officer cadet by Commander R. I. Hitesman, commanding officer of HMCS Patriot, Hamilton. He will be at the Canadian Forces Royal Roads College in British Columbia, and will eventually finish his training and education at Royal Military College, Kingston, where he will be commissioned as an officer in the branch of the service he has chosen.

GLEN WILLIAMS

Softball To The Fore In The Glen This Season

Not for a long time has there been such interest in softball in the Glen. There were teams for every member of the family. The Squirrels (boys) won their playoffs at Hornby playing Hornby. They first played Omagh, then Kilbride and lastly Hornby to win the 'Squirt' Championship for '68. The team is playing also in O.R. play-downs and won the semi-final against Moffat last week. Coaches for these boys are John Haines, Don Hancock and Bob Heaton.

Sunday night the men's softball team were playing Guelph in the Glen in the semi-finals. Up to now it is 2-1. The series is 3 out of 5 games. The Glen Ladies' Ball team tournament is scheduled for Sat. Sept. 7 at the Ball Park. There are 3 teams competing. The teams are Acton, Drumquinn, Hornby Omagh, Oakville, Georgetown Palermo as well as our girls. They will be playing this Thursday night the semi-finals first play-off. The girls will be playing Drumquinn.

Radio System Will Link County Roads

A $12,201 contract has been awarded to Canadian General Electric to equip the Halton County roads department with a mobile road system, it was announced on Thursday.

The bid submitted by General Electric was the second lowest of four.

A lower bid of $11,000 from the Canadian Marconi Company was refused following a report from a radio expert who said the Marconi equipment did not meet the specifications laid down by the county.

gleby and then Mary Engleby visited with Mrs. Hipkin last week and Sunday the Engleby family brought her home.

We extended sympathy to the Cooper and Marchmont family in the death of Mrs. Mary Cooper at Halton Manor in Milton, and the flowers on the altar of St. Alban's Church Sunday morning were in memory of Mrs. Cooper, a life-long worker for the Guild.

We extend sympathy to Mrs. Ed Hill and Barbara and to his sister, Una (Mrs. Wheeler) in the death of Ed last week. He was buried in the Glen Cemetery on Monday afternoon.

Sunday morning service in the United Church was taken by John Hunter and Mr. and Mrs. Klaus Schneider and a lovely solo was sung by Nancy Cowtan of London who was visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. John Hunter. Flowers in the church were in memory of Norman Logan and Mr. Du Breuil.

Next Sunday morning the service is in charge of the UCU and the speaker will be Mrs. Lee Campbell of Union Church.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wagstaffe spent the weekend at Wasaga Beach and while there attended the auction sale of Vern and Dot Kirby at their summer hotel which has been taken over by the conservation authority.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sharpe of Rochester visited recently with Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Starret and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Heinz Steinfatt Christine and Carol have recently spent a camping holiday at Inverhuron Beach on Lake Huron.

Mr. Bill Forgrave of California has been renewing old acquaintances in the village recently.

25 Already Join, Air Cadet Roster Still Open

With Capt. Rod MacDonald in the pilot's seat, Lt. Colin Cousens navigating, and Ralph Hawes assisting, Squadron 756 was wheeled out on to the runway on Monday evening and began warming up for take off.

Monday was the first night for interviewing applicants and well over 30 boys and some parents braved the perils of the road to the Cedarvale Centennial Community Centre, where the workmen are in process of excavations to lay storm sewers. After navigating a bulldozer, and deep mud, the would-be air cadets completed application forms and were interviewed.

Dairy Princess Enters Friday's CNE Contest

Halton's Dairy Princess, Miss Carol Swackhamer of Acton, will be competing at the Dairy Princess Competition in the main ring of the Coliseum at the CNE at 6:00 p.m. on Aug. 26.

This is the preliminary competition and winners from each of the preliminaries will compete in the semi-finals on Tuesday and Wednesday, August 27 and 28 with the winners of the semi-finals competing on August 29.

Last year Carol reached the finals and on the 26th she will be competing against other finalists from last year. This should be a very keen competition.

Put two and two together and the result is always the same: A game of bridge.

Some 25 boys were accepted and will be on parade Monday evening September 6.

During the interview the boys were given a brief preview of the many benefits they will derive from cadets, and were told what would be expected of them, punctuality, pride in themselves and their uniforms, good attendance, which is a must, hair cuts and good general conduct.

Next Monday the Centre will be open again for interviews. It is expected the quota will be reached then, if not interviews will be given on the following Monday.

Last week many hours of work went into the project, men of the cadets, and sponsoring committee were at the Centre most evenings preparing for Sept. 9.

Russ Stephens, Frank Bull, and Rod MacDonald performed a face lifting job on three obsolete office desks and finished up with gleaming modern office equipment. Cupboards have been built along with all the
