

Send Traditional Horseshoe For Granddaughter's Wedding

Now living in Cooksville, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Stanley Leys were married in St. George's Anglican Church in a May 13 ceremony.

The bride, the former Carol Irene Shortman, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Shortman, 19 Rexway Drive. The groom is the son of Mrs. Win Leys and the late Jack Leys.

The Rev. Eric Mills officiated and during the service organist George DeKleer played Love Divine, Lead Us Heavenly Father and Psalm 67. The bride's father gave her in marriage in the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a long white A-line gown of silk organza over peau de soie, trimmed with chantilly lace. Her headdress was a coronet of stiffened lace and a veil fell from this to form a train. She wore a cross and chain which her father had given her mother at their wedding 26 years ago. She carried a cascade of pink roses centred with mauve orchids.

Miss Sheila Cruickshank, Weston, was maid of honour and Mrs. Margaret Carroll and Miss Jennifer Bishop were bridesmaids. The maid of honour wore lime green silk organza over peau de soie and matching cape trimmed with chantilly lace, and bridesmaids wore similar outfits in yellow. The flower girl, Kimberley Bishop of Acton, is the bride's cousin and she wore a long gown of green bemberg georgette over yellow fall weave taffeta, trimmed with lace daisies. Attendants wore headresses of white flowers and carried posies of miniature white carnations and yellow pompons. Senior attendants wore pendant watches and the flower girl a cultured pearl gift from the bride.

David Carroll, Cooksville was groomsmen; the bride's brother, John Shortman, Willowdale, and Paul Corbett, Cooksville, were ushers; and a young cousin of the bride, Christopher Flemming was ring bearer. Male attendants wore white jackets.

As the bride and groom left the church, she was presented with a horseshoe sent from England by her grandparents, aunt and uncle, a tradition which is carried on in Britain.

At a reception at the Yellow Briar Inn, Brampton, the bride's mother wore a blue coat and matching dress of Italian worsted silk, blue hat and white accessories and a white gardenia corsage. The groom's mother who also received, wore a beige quilted satin coat and matching dress, burnt orange accessories and white gardenia corsage.

For a honeymoon trip to Lake Simcoe and Ottawa, the Bride wore a two piece dress of bride was honoured with show blushing pink-worsted silk, laces given by the groom's aunt, white accessories and a corsage his mother and bridesmaids of mauve orchids.

Her mother and aunt, Mrs. G. Fleming, had a three-seau tea town, Acton, Toronto, Cooksville, Detroit, Cleveland, Kitchener, and Best Locks in Cooksville. His Mrs. Len Tyson, former Georgeville, a 1966 graduate of Georgetown District High School, is an employee of Spar Aerospace prior to her marriage the Malton.

Broken Collar Bone, Bruises in Accident

A speedy recovery is extended to Mrs. Ken Tasker who spent several days in Peel Memorial Hospital, Brampton, with a broken collar bone and severe bruises suffered in a car accident while driving to work in the office at Douglas Aircraft, Malton, on Tuesday, August 20. The car was a complete loss.

Mr. and Mrs. Tasker purchased the former Day property near the public school several months ago.

Bride-to-be Miss Lynda Leslie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Leslie, has been honoured with several showers recently.

Hostesses of the first shower held on June 27 in Brampton were aunts of the groom, Mrs. Fred Clark, Mrs. Fred Kane and Mrs. Jack King of Richmond Hill. Guests were relatives and friends of the Swackhammer family.

Miss Edith McDonald, maid of honour, was hostess at a kitchen shower on August 12. Guests were 411 members, old high school and church friends.

On August 15 the ladies of Union Presbyterian Church were hostesses at a community shower in the church hall.

Mrs. Randy Fraser, Cooksville, was hostess at a miscellaneous shower on August 20. Guests were girls from the Medical Records office of South Peel Hospital where Lynda is employed.

Mrs. Wm. Hyatt, R.R. 2, Norval, aunt of the bride, was hostess for a relatives shower on August 21st.

On August 25th, Miss Bonnie Atkinson, Streetsville, was hostess at a miscellaneous shower for Lynda's classmates from the Medical Records Librarian course and high school friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Westelman and 10 months old twin sons, Dale and David, flew from Anaheim, California, and spent a couple of weeks visiting with Mrs. Westelman's parents, Mr.

Monday 'Opening Night' For Little Theatre Now

Dear Sir: May 1, on behalf of The Georgetown Little Theatre request a little space in your newspaper —

Firstly, to publicly thank the Mayor and Councillors of Georgetown for declaring this week of August 26th to 31st to be "Little Theatre Week."

This marks the beginning of our 1968-69 Season Membership Campaign, and the free printed brochures naming our forthcoming plays are available, in most stores, as well as various other locations.

This year, it has been suggested that our opening night be on a Monday instead of Thursday, as in the past. Basically, this is to dispel the "Monday Blues" and by avoiding local business hours, will give the businessmen and stores personnel a better opportunity to attend the performances.

This of course will bring us into direct competition with the town council — but as they have a weekly appearance, we feel they won't mind too much!

Secondly, Applications will be received until the opening night of our first play in October and Mrs. Bill Jarvie, recently.

Congratulations to Gail McDonald and Ernie Webb who were married in the Presbyterian Church, Georgetown, on Saturday, August 17.

Norval Women's Institute catered to the reception which followed the wedding at the Odd Fellows Hall Georgetown.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Guthrie Terry, Michael and Lisa, enjoyed a couple of weeks holidays at a cottage in Haliburton recently.

On the weekend of August 25 they enjoyed visiting at Pigeon Lake.

Town of Georgetown ready and willing to come out to receive it?? We feel sure that it is, and are anticipating a healthy response.

Thank you, Chris Fisher
