

Florida Honeymoon for Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Foster

Now living at 30 Tullamore Road in Brampton, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Foster were married on July 13th at a four o'clock ceremony in Knox Presbyterian Church, performed by Rev. Norman Young. The church was decorated with white gladioli and Kenneth R. Harrison was organist.

Mr. Laird gave his daughter in marriage in the double ring ceremony. She was gowned in white satin, with empire waist line and lace bodice. Her gown had ball sleeves and a satin train and she wore a waist length veil and carried a cascade of pink carnations.

Mrs. Robert Matthews was her sister's matron of honour; the groom's sister Mrs. Thomas Burke was bridesmaid and little Debbie Matthews, niece of the bride, was junior bridesmaid, and another niece, Robin Matthews was flower girl.

Mrs. Matthews wore a pink crepe gown with empire waist and bell sleeves and carried a cascade of white mums and blue pinocchio mums. Other attendants were in blue crepe, and carried cascades of pink pinocchio mums, except for the flower girl, who had a basket of pink and white mums.

Robert Matthews, Hamilton, was groomsmen; Thomas Burke and the bride's brother Gordon Laird were ushers.

At a reception in the church hall, the bride's mother wore blue linen shantung with white accessories and an orchid corsage. The groom's mother wore a two-piece crepe dress of American Beauty rose with white accessories and also had an orchid corsage.

The groom's great-aunt, Mrs. George Crow from Northampton, England, was among wedding guests who came from Ottawa, Port Elgin, Toronto, Milton, Streetsville, Milton, Lakeshore, Glen Williams and Georgetown.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster travelled south as far as Florida for their honeymoon, the bride leaving in a two-piece crepe outfit of ton's turquoise and white with white accessories.

On Friday night, September 6, Mrs. Jean Cannon held a bathroom shower at the home of her mother, Mrs. Cliff Hunter, a bride-to-be. Guests who attended were school chums and relatives.

Anniversary greetings to Mr. and Mrs. Paul May who will celebrate their wedding anniversary on September 19.

— Mrs. Jim Hamilton

Celebrate Anniversary At Willow Park Cottage

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chesney (Gertie Louth) of Cleveland, Ohio, were surprised with a party in honour of their 50th wedding anniversary by their relatives while they were here for a few holidays at their cottage at Willow Park.

About 45 relatives and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herb Louth on Saturday evening August 31 and took Mr. and Mrs. Chesney by complete surprise with the party. Their anniversary date is November 4th but the relatives decided to celebrate a little early while the couple were here and they all could get together.

Their two sons, Carl, who lives at home, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Chesney of Parma Heights, Ohio, were present but two granddaughters were unable to attend.

During the evening Mr. and Mrs. Chesney were presented with a purse. A buffet lunch which included turkey, ham, salads, and a beautifully decorated wedding cake was enjoyed.

Carl Chesney, Mrs. Westley Louth and Mrs. Herb Louth planned the enjoyable evening.

Canon and Mrs. J. Maxwell, Laurie and Mary Jean, of Hornby, enjoyed the summer at their cottage on the hill. For the last week of the holidays Laurie attended a leadership training course on "World Affairs" held at Huron College, Western University, London.

Rev. and Mrs. W. Rutley, Linda and Donna, enjoyed their holiday; visiting relatives at Port Hawkesbury, Nova Scotia.

Get well wishes are extended to Bill Pomeroy who spent several days in Georgetown & District Memorial Hospital.

Congratulations to Lynn Leslie and Douglas Swackhamer who were married in Union Presbyterian Church, on Friday evening, September 6. They will reside in Cooksville.

Congratulations to Mary Fricker and Victor Busch who were married in St. Paul's Anglican Church, Norval, on Saturday afternoon, August 31. Mary is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Fricker of England; Victor is son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Fricker of Norval. The home in Acton.

Sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Julian Reed, Christopher and Robert on the death of Mrs. Reed's mother, Mrs. Florence Willis, in Peel Memorial Hospital, Brampton. The funeral was held on Saturday

Married in the West Mrs. W. H. Taylor Dies

Funeral service, conducted by Rev. I. E. Wilton of First Baptist Church, was held last Wednesday at the Harold C. McClure Funeral Home for Mrs. William H. Taylor, 33 King St. East, Mrs. Taylor who was 79, died in Georgetown Hospital on September 1st.

The former Mary Myrtle Mills she was the daughter of George and Asthena Hewson Mills and was born in the Alvinston district. She left there in 1900 for the west and in 1906 was married in Franklin, Manitoba.

She leaves her husband and two children, William R. Taylor, and Mrs. S. (Evelyn) McKewen, both of Toronto; two grandchildren and one great-grandchild, and brothers Hollie Mills, London, and William Mills, Regina. She was predeceased by a sister Mrs. Mabel Spencer of Tisdale, Sask. and brothers Sandy, Dan and Walter Mills.

Interment in Greenwood Cemetery followed the funeral service. Pallbearers were Sandy Mino, Robert Letts, Douglas Weir, Bert Allen, Cecil Hardie, Toronto and Charles Kingsbury Campbellville.

— Mrs. Jim Hamilton

CARDS OF THANKS

BLOOD DONORS — The members of the Committee of the Georgetown and District Red Cross Blood Donor Clinic would like to sincerely thank all the Blood Donors who helped make the Clinic a success by their generous response — Mrs. R.H. Jones, Blood Donor Clinic chairman

DWYER — I would like to thank my friends and neighbours for cards, gifts and flowers while I was a patient in Georgetown & District Memorial Hospital, and since returning home. A special thanks to Dr. Chamberlain, Dr. Kerr, Ward A staff and the Lab technician — Kay Dwyer.

HAYWARD — We would like to thank our family, friends and neighbours for their gifts, cards and good wishes on the occasion of our Golden Wedding Anniversary. — Harry and Lily Hayward.

STARK — I would like to thank all the friends, relatives and neighbours for the flowers, gifts, cards, visits and telephone calls while I was a patient in Georgetown & District Memorial Hospital. Also Dr. Panabaker, the nurses, orderlies, candy strippers and the efficient hospital staff. — A. Neilson Stark.

— Mrs. E. Burk, Mrs. G. Chester, Mrs. E. McLean and Mrs. I. Gollop were appointed to arrange the W. L. exhibit at the fair.

Mrs. W. Graham read the correspondence and gave the financial report. Mrs. G. Chester gave the report of catering in the Webb, McDonald wedding.

An auction sale of various items donated by the members with Mrs. Vera Taylor as auctioneer was a highlight of the meeting.

Mrs. K. Webb and Mrs. G. Chester assisted the hostess in serving lunch and a social time was enjoyed.

The next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. L. Cleave, was postponed for one week to October 10 as the regular meeting date is the night before Georgetown fair and most of the members will be busy with fair activities.

The Men's Group of St. Paul's Anglican Church, Norval were in charge of a family corn roast held outdoors on the church grounds on Saturday evening with a good attendance. Mr. R. Hamilton was chef for the corn. The children were entertained with movies and the young people enjoyed a dance in the parish hall following the corn roast.

Miss Janice Carter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ormie Carter, left from Milton airport for London, England, on Saturday evening and will visit friends in Southern England for 3 weeks. Janice then plans to join Miss Karen Korzack of Glen Williams and two other friends and spend several months touring Europe.

David Carter also left on Saturday to visit friends in Vancouver, B.C. and then visit his uncle, Douglas Browne and family, at Calgary.
