

ELECTION HOOPLA AS STUDENTS VIE FOR HIGH SCHOOL POSTS

With all the hoopla and banner waving of a political convention, the two contested seats on the Georgetown High school student council executive were filled, at Friday's election.

Tim Brotherton won out over five other candidates, Bob Barber, John Papis, Bob Tarzwell, Arlene Crawford and Doug Stephens, to capture the coveted position of chairman of the social committee.

Mary Carr pulled more votes than her only rival John Riley to emerge as treasurer.

Political promises and appeals were made to the students assembled in the auditorium, as each candidate sought their support. Banners were hoisted in spontaneous demonstrations at the conclusion of each speech.

Since the senior posts of president and vice president run from December till December, Jane McNally and Jim Freeman retain their present positions. Leslie Hansen was elected secretary by acclamation.

Elections also included class representatives to the student council.

Cross Fingers for Good Corn Roast Weather Sunday

by Ralph Hawes

Now that the air cadets have become a reality, two Monday evening parades have been held. The new cadets, the officers and Legion sponsoring committee anxiously await the announcement of its charter. On that evening it is hoped certain dignitaries of the RCAF and of Georgetown will be present. Officials of Branch 120 will present the squadron with colours.

We repeat ourselves when we say this month is a busy one. Norm Ward and members of the executive have been in top gear getting everything in running order for the Branch Elimination Dinner this Friday. Such projects as this take lots of work and time which is donated by a few members of the Branch.

Fingers Crossed

Jim Johnson is busy rounding up helpers for the annual corn roast. A few fellows are needed at Gord Brown's this Sunday morning to get up tables, etc., for the afternoon. Fingers crossed for good weather.

The Branch Pipe Band along with the color party will be away to Cooksville Branch for the official opening ceremony which we understand is to take place at 1:30 p.m. We hope those members who do not will be able to return in time to enjoy the corn.

Last Thursday, Comrade Henry Hale and members of the Saturday morning Legion hockey met with Georgetown Parks Board under the chairmanship of Mr. Ivan Crabtree. It was a most amiable meeting and agreement for the coming hockey season was reached quickly. We understand the Legion will have 22 weeks of hockey this season. Last season just 18 weeks were allotted to the Branch. At this meeting Comrade Hale saw fit to recognize a fact that has been known for many years; that truly the Parks Board are co-sponsors in Saturday morning hockey.

Happy Birthday

Although the ladies birthday supper and dance was a success, we feel the attendance of members was indeed very poor. It must be extremely hard for President Jean Lockhurst and her committees to devise ways and means to coax members to come out to such functions, although no member should need to be persuaded or coaxed.

The Friday night dart shoot once again was a winner with prizes being won by Jim Williams, Lou Simpson, Jack Kerr, Joe Gaudie, Art Hills, Barb Hance, Ron McLean, Jim Gilchrist, Mac Lincoln and Joe Gaudie. Watch out for next Friday night with the men folk being upstarts at the Elimination Dinner. Four of the ladies have volunteered to run the dart shoot. At least this will be something different.

Surprise

The Saturday night dance was a surprise to most of those that see, to it that everything runs smoothly, for with other activities going on at the same time it was felt the attendance would be very small. It proved to be a very good attendance. The four fellows and one girl who are the Gay Notes were good. They are versatile and crowd pleasing. Their vocalists leaves nothing to be desired and their harmony is extremely good. Hope to see them in the auditorium again soon.

Ways and Means draws were won by Jim Murphy, Jean Lockhurst and Earl Edmond. Door prizes won by Joe Poirier and George Washburn.

NORVAL

Visitor's Father Was Minister at Norval

Renewing old acquaintances in the village on Sunday, Sept. 15 was Miss Edith Patterson of Toronto. Edith lived in the manse and attended in the public school for several years in the 1920's when her father was the Presbyterian Church minister here. Her mother is now 86 years old but her father died a few years ago. Her brother Herbert lives in Sudbury. Edith is employed at the Girl Guide headquarters in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Winston Newman and baby son Robbie of Toronto visited with Mrs. Newman's parents, Rev. and Mrs. R. Duncanson, for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Newman live in a lovely apartment at the Scott Mission where Winston is employed while he carries on his studies at Knox Presbyterian Church College, Toronto University, taking the B.D. course. He already has his B.Th. and his B.A.

He is not going through for a United Church minister as erroneously reported a few weeks ago.

St. Paul's Guild of Norval Anglican Church met for a business meeting in the Parish Hall on Wednesday evening, Sept. 11 with the president Mrs. Sylvia Coomber in the chair.

The meeting opened by reciting the Lord's Prayer after which the minutes and correspondence were read which included a thank you note from the altar guild for the altar cloth and the storage box. The president informed the members that a new surplice had been purchased by the guild for Rev. Huggie.

It was decided to purchase pails and mops for cleaning of the hall, to renew castrorugs and repair leakage at the children's table to have the stove hooked up in the kitchen.

Suggestions for future projects were sprays and screens for the kitchen windows in the hall, broadloom for the sanctuary, partitions for Sunday School classes and possibly new choir-gowns.

The election of officers followed — president, Malina Dunn; vice president Jean Lindley; secretary Helen Sparkes; treasurer Marg Cooke; phoning committee, Rose Hanley and Mary Russell; cookie convener Hazel Gorin.

Mrs. Coomber thanked the ladies for their hard work and co-operation during the past year.

Unit Two of Norval United Church U.C.W. started the fall meetings with a weiner roast at the home of Mrs. Orval Shea on Wednesday evening September 11.

Mrs. Gordon Laidlaw, president was in the chair for the business. It was decided to purchase more stacking chairs for the Sunday School with Mrs. Bill Laidlaw to look after the details. Plans were made for the bake sale and tea to be held in November.

Mrs. Lloyd Laidlaw and Mrs. Roy Laidlaw were in charge of the program and conducted several games.

The evening ended with the weiner roast which had to be held indoors due to the dampness. Mrs. Mac Hyatt and Mrs. Bill Laidlaw were in charge of the lunch.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. Thurbek and the program will consist of a jewellery demonstration.

Visitors with Mr. and Mrs. John Marshall during the week were their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Marshall, of Brantford and on the weekend Mr. and Mrs. Roy McCall and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Brown of Peterborough, were their guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan are the parents of Glen Elliott, a former neighbour of the Marshalls. Mr. and Mrs. Elliott and family, now living in Vancouver, visited friends in the village during the summer while they were vacationing at the cottage at Sauble Beach.

Scout Mothers Plan Booth at the Fair

The meeting of the Scout mothers was held at Mrs. Lloyd Marshall's on Tuesday of last week. Mrs. Ron Saunders presided. The main business of the evening was planning for the booth at Georgetown Fair. Mrs. Marshall served a cup of tea and a social half hour was spent.

Quite a number of ladies from Ballinafad attended a miscellaneous shower at Erin United Church on Thursday night. It was in honour of Nancy Pick, who is to become the bride of John Gates on Saturday, Sept. 21st. John is a grandson of Mrs. John Snow.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander-Keir have returned from a pleasant three weeks holiday in Scotland. They went to visit Mrs. Berry at Tayport. Mrs. Berry is Mrs. Leo Jamieson's mother and spent last summer in Ballinafad with the Jamiesons. The Keirs report Mrs. Berry is in good health and wishes to be remembered to her many friends here.

Sorry to hear Peter Lawr and his wife Barbara had an accident near Stewarttown on Saturday when their car evidently blew a tire and turned over in the ditch. The car was badly wrecked but fortunately Mr. and Mrs. Lawr escaped with minor injuries.

Mrs. Leo Jamieson and Mrs. Wm. Buchanan attended the training school in Milton last Tuesday for the 4th Home-Mark.

NORVAL

Rally Day Services at Presbyterian Churches

A special Rally Day service was held in Norval Presbyterian Church Sunday, Sept. 8th when Sunday School attendance awards were presented.

Primary pupils receiving diplomas were: Douglas McClure, Kevin Donaldson, Melinda Best, Cathy Little and Billy Davis. The Robert Rizzo certificate was received by: Douglas Donaldson, Margaret Best and Carol Little.

The 2nd year seal was presented to: Alexander Best, Sam McClure, Barrie Little and Charles Best.

Presented with the 3rd year seal were: Dianne Robinson, Laurie Robinson, Penny Davis, John Lee, Lorner McClure and Ross McClure.

There were no 4th year seals presented. 5th year seals were presented to: Marianne Robinson, Bobby Lee, Bruce McGee, Murray McClure, and Jimmy McClure.

Receiving 6th year seals were Karen Robinson, Bill McClure, and Craig McClure.

7th year seals were received by: Mary Lynn Clark, Lila McClure and Mary McClure.

Officers of the PYPS were also installed at this service. They are president Margaret Duff, vice president Dave Andrews, secretary Margaret Ostrander, treasurer Mable McClure, worship convener, Bob McClure.

Rally Day was observed at Union Presbyterian Church on Sunday, September 8th, with the presentation of Sunday School attendance certificates ing club. The new club for the girls will be 'The Third Meal'. Mr. George Harris attended the Dog Show at Owen Sound Saturday and Sunday and came home with two beautiful trophies his dogs had won.

Congratulations also to Jim Corbell. He showed his Quarter Horse 'Indio's Martin' at Port Hope on Saturday. He won the Grand Champion performance horse of the show taking first in pleasure and stock horse and second in reining.

The E-B-H-O riding club held their fourth show of the season on Sunday at Erin Fair Grounds. There were 123 entries, many of them from local farms in the area, competing against horses from as far away as Tottenham, Toronto and Shelburne.

The costume class was won by Elizabeth Barnes on her Arab mare, dressed in full Arab costume.

The large number of entries in all events are proof positive of the rising popularity of saddle horses.

The climax of the show was a miniature steeplechase, won by Gail Harbour on her pony Kingsley. They really showed the horses both English and Western how to clear the jumps in a big hurry.

Lois Burt was in the Collingwood district recently and called on Mr. and Mrs. Vic Greygoose and her friend Vicky Greygoose at Craigleith.

Marion Young was also presented with a burning bush brooch from the staff of the 'Vacation Bible School' which was held for 3 weeks during August at Terra Cotta hall.

Terry Leslie, Sunday School superintendent, assisted in the church service and presented the certificates.

Each year pupils who have their 12th birthday during the year are presented with Bibles. Those receiving Bibles were: Susan Leslie, Heather Leslie, Hunter Andrews, Jim Moore and Caroline Ostrander.

Three babies were also baptized during the service. They were: Robert David, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Anderson; Joan Susan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Boyes; and Linda Heather, daughter of Mr. Mrs. Roy Thompson.
