

NEWS FROM BELFOUNTAIN

MRS. BERNICE TRIMBLE
927-3545

The September meeting of the Baptist Mission Circle was held at the church with Mrs. Jim Bruce presiding.

After Mrs. Olive Widias had read the minutes of the last meeting and the correspondence, plans were made for a sale of Christmas gifts, home baking and some used clothing to take place the last Saturday in November in the basement of the church. Arrangements were also made for the members to join with the Hillsborough Baptist Mission Circle in the Baptist Women's Day of Prayer on Nov. 4th at the home of Mrs. Donald Matheson.

Mrs. Jim Brown was in charge of the program and Mrs. Albert Roszell took the devotional period by reading the 100th Psalm after which all repeated the 23rd Psalm in unison. Mrs. Roszell concluded with prayer.

Mrs. J.D. McLeod read a paper, "What Can I Give?" and Mrs. Albert McBride read a paper, "What I Have to be Thankful For," followed by a poem, "The Master Comes," read by Mrs. Olive Widias.

Mrs. Jim Brown gave part of her report of the Convention held recently in Windsor and Mrs. Clara Riley read a short paper,

"Court Your Blessings."

Mrs. Jim Bruce read a paper written by Mrs. Albert Roszell on Thoughts about Thanksgiving. The meeting concluded with the singing of hymn 215 and the repeating of the Mizpah Benediction.

The October meeting of the Mission Circle will be held at the home of Mrs. Jim Bruce. Historical Research was the topic of the program of the October meeting of the Belfountain-Rockside Women's Institute. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. J.C. MacMillan who welcomed eighteen members and one visitor.

Mrs. W.B. Laughlin presided and the minutes and correspondence were read by Mrs. Gordon Corbett. An invitation to the Caledon W.I. Tea and Craft show was read and tickets for the W.I. Bursary Dessert Euchre were on sale. Four layettes were handed in for the use of the Family Services in Brampton. A good report was given of the caserole luncheon served the Saturday previous. Arrangements were made to charter a bus again this year to attend the Area Convention of Nov. 7 with members of other Institutes in the District to go along.

The Roll Call was answered by telling of a local historical event and an oldtime custom. Mrs. Wallace McLeod read the history of Melville United Church which was written by H. Creighton, telling of the many hardships of the pioneers in locating a church in the wilderness. Mrs. Albert McBride read an amusing poem, "Maryanne," and also played the piano for a musical contest which was won by Mrs. J.C. MacMillan.

Mrs. McLeod then carried out the theme of the program by reading an account of pioneer days telling particularly of the making of the pioneer homes and other buildings, before the time of Confederation. Mrs. Archie McLeod extended the courtesies and refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Jim Bruce and Mrs. John Trimble. Several of the members passed around one of their old school pictures and a W.I. picture taken some thirty years ago.

One of the oldest residents of the village, John Longstreet, died at Guelph General Hospital on Thursday, October 10th, after a lengthy illness. John lived all of his eighty-three years in this community and was well versed on the history here. Funeral services were held on Saturday from the Wendell Funeral Home. Erin. Sympathy is extended to his son Wallace, Beth (Mrs. Jim Homer) and Margaret (Mrs. Bob Wilson).

"Thank You"

Four months ago I made the promise to food shoppers in general, and Loblaws customers in particular that Loblaws would give the customer what she wants. During these four months we've tried to do our homework. We've heard from over 65,000 food shoppers who told us what they want... "no stamps"... "lower food prices"... "more variety in the meat department"... These are just a few of the major things you requested. We've been busy putting in to work many of your suggestions. And there are plenty of changes to come. Your response to our "new look" program has been tremendously gratifying.

On behalf of everyone here at Loblaws I would like to say "thank you" for endorsing our efforts with your loyalty and patronage. We will do everything we can to continue to earn it.
