The Norval 4H Homemakers Club held its second meeting at the home of Mrs. Bob May on Tuesday evening Oct. 8 and chose as their name Mini McLean, as the course this term is on the small meal or lunch. They decided to meet every Tuesday evening at 7 p.m.

The Sunday School pupils brought gifts from the bountiful harvest such as vegetables and fruit to the front of the church during the processional hymns and five pupils gave readings for the call to worship. Janet Johnson, Kelly Crawford, Wayne Laidlaw, Gordon Haloway and David May.

The Junior choir sang two selections during the service, and the church was filled.

Rev. W. Ridley was the guest speaker at Norval Women's Institute on Thursday evening Oct. 10, held at the home of Mrs. Lorne Cleave, Georgetown. He spoke on his experiences as chaplain at the Ontario Reformatory at Brampton for several weeks this spring and stressed the fact that work with the young boys was needed before they started to rebel against society as most of the young men there came from broken homes where they had been rejected.

Most had no one who really cared about what happened to him. Rev. Ridley said that organized groups that work with young boys should be supported. His talk was very interesting and enjoyed by all present. He was introduced by Mrs. E. McLean and thanked by Mrs. Don Murray.

ROLL CALL
Mrs. Joe Murray presided for the meeting. The roll call was answered with naming a new Canadian neighbor and telling her opinion on Canada.

Mrs. D. Murray gave the report of the district director's meeting Mrs. G. Chester was appointed delegate to the WI convention and Mrs. D. Murray to take the advanced hat course.

It was decided to give a donation to the Georgetown YMCA fund-raising project.

Mrs. E. McLean and Mrs. D. Murray, citizenship convener, were in charge of the program. They were assisted in giving the motto "after all there is one race, humanity," by Mrs. G. Chester and Mrs. H. Gollop. As this is International Year for Human Rights, each gave a brief outline of the human rights of a group. Mrs. Murray spoke on the Canadian Indians, Mrs. G. Chester on the Biculturalism and Bilingualism report, Mrs. Gollop on women's rights and Mrs. McLean on world conditions.

HOSTESSES
Mrs. L. May and Mrs. Wm. Graham were assistant hostesses and a social hour was enjoyed.

Mrs. L. May, Tweedsmuir history curator, reminded the members to bring a picture for the history book to the next meeting. Unit Two of Norval United Church held its regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. J. Thurlbeck on Wednesday evening Oct. 9.

The program was a Sarah Coventry jewelry demonstration after which Mrs. L. Grant and Mrs. L. Laidlaw gave the devotional on "thanksgiving".

The main item of business was setting up committees for the afternoon tea and bazaar to be held in the basement of the church on Saturday afternoon Nov. 2.

Good, clean used clothing is needed for the sale. Mrs. L. Grant is in charge of the sale and will place a box in the church for the clothing.

At this meeting the girls started cooking. Kathy May made cream of tomato soup and Susan May made a toasted western sandwich and the girls planned three meals for the day.

The third meeting was held in following Tuesday evening Oct. 15 at the home of Mrs. Bob May. The roll call was answered with 'my favourite fish dish.' The girls studied different meals. Heather Hyatt made a salmon loaf and Debbie May made a chicken salad.

Plans were completed for their rummage and bake sale to be held in the basement of Norval United Church on Saturday, Oct. 20.

published supplies to help finance the groups.

It was also arts and crafts day at the Riviera when the Club held its annual display of work. The lovely fall weather helped to make it a perfect day and many combined a lovely drive in the country with a visit to the arts and crafts exhibits.

Ed McLean. Those who decided to take a drive over the Thanksgiving weekend to enjoy the beautiful fall colors and scenery around the Forks of the Credit found they were driving bumper-to-bumper with others who had the same route in mind. This beauty spot is becoming very popular for a Sunday drive especially at this time of the year when the trees are so beautiful in their fall colours.
