

Couple Wed Sixty Years Family Surprise Party

A family surprise party at their home, 7 McNabb St. marked the happy occasion of their 60th wedding anniversary for Mr. and Mrs. Bertie Weston, on Saturday evening, Oct. 12th. A necklace of cultured pearls, with brooch and earrings to match for Mrs. Weston, and a pearl tie pin for the groom of sixty years, were presented to them from their family as special mementos of their anniversary day.

The day was a succession of pleasant surprises as bouquets and arrangements of flowers, cards, and gifts from family and friends arrived at the Weston home, expressing congratulations and good wishes. Mr. and Mrs. Weston received congratulatory telegrams from the Queen, Prime Minister Trudeau, and Rud Whiting, M.P. Mr. Whiting also called personally on Mr. and Mrs. Weston in the afternoon, to bring congratulations. Also calling in the afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. William Burtenshaw and Mr. and Mrs. Ted James of Hamilton, Mr. Bill James of Georgetown and Mr. and Mrs. William Morris of Aurora on Sunday afternoon.

The family surprise party included Ken and Vera Weston of Georgetown, Roy and Doris Weston, Bill and Donna, and area attended the International Ploughing Match. Many took advantage of it being close to home and the weather was ideal.

The bride was honoured at several showers prior to her marriage. A personal shower, given by great aunts at the home of Mrs. Wm. Austin, Weston; a Tupperware shower, hosted by Judy Freeman for girl friends from school; a surprise miscellaneous shower at the bride's home given by cousins; a miscellaneous shower given by the groom's aunts at the home of Mrs. Katy Finnan, Toronto; a pantry shower given by the groom's aunts in Toronto, at the home of Mrs. Len Slinson; a surprise linen shower given by the bridesmaids, at the home of Sandra Roberts.

Recent visitors with the Frank Smiths were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hulls of Bayfield and Mrs. and Mrs. Norman Swann and Kevin of St. Catharines.

Mrs. Slesoraites has returned home after spending several days with her sister in Chicago.

The third meeting of the "Ballinafad Dainty Dishes" was held Saturday, October 19th in the Ballinafad Community Centre. The discussion was on "the third meal" with fish, fowl or fowl. Each member completed one day's meals on their four day meal record.

Shella Jamieson and Julie Eckert served a delicious chicken salad.

Salmon loaf was made by Kathy French and Karen Shortt.

Hosts Quilting Bee On Her 87th Birthday

On Monday, October 21st, Miss Beatrice Hills celebrated her eighty-seventh birthday by having a quilting bee at her home on the farm on which her great-grandfather and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hills settled in the spring of 1821. They lived in a log cabin in that cabin in November of that year. Best wishes are extended to Miss Hills by her many friends.

Mrs. Donald McLean was hostess to the October meeting of the BCW on Tuesday afternoon, October 15. Mrs. Hooley presided and opened the meeting in the usual way. She also had charge of the devotional period. A committee was picked to pack the bales, and a discussion took place regarding the annual bazaar.

Mrs. Richard Shortill gave the topic which was most interesting. Mrs. McLean had prepared a contest after which the meeting was closed. A social time was then enjoyed with the serving of a cup of tea.

Lions Proceeding with East End Park Plans

With the Lions Club anxious to proceed with one stage of the planned improvements to two community park sites, council on Monday gave the club the green light.

Deputy Reeve Spelght explained that the club wants to prepare land near Kennedy public school for what will eventually become an additional town park before winter sets in. Council and the town engineer will be consulted prior to any major work begins.

MR. AND MRS. HENRY VANDERVEEN

Rev. A.J. VandenPol officiated at the wedding ceremony when Mary Patricia Braam daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Braam, 30 Arleka Street became the bride of Henry Vanderveen, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Vanderveen, 35 Sherwood Crescent, Brampton. The Christian Reformed Church was decorated with two standards of yellow and orange gladioli for the candlelight service where George DeKleer was organist and Simon Frankruyter was the soloist, singing The Wedding Prayer and The Lord's Prayer. It was a double ring ceremony, on September 8th.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a full length gown fashioned with an Empire bodice of chantilly lace, the skirt was of tulle with an overskirt of chiffon, the sleeves were long lily-point and the neckline of the bodice was scalloped. There was a full length train of chantilly lace. Her flowers were a cascade of orange delight roses. Her headpiece of lace, pearls and rhinestones in flower design held a four tiered shoulder length scalloped nylon veil.

Mrs. Hilda Vandervoort was matron of honour, a sister of the bride, with Mrs. Mary Ann Frankruyter and Miss Alice Frankruyter acting as bridesmaids. Margaret Rose Vandervoort, six year old niece of the bride was flower girl and James Douglas Vandervoort, five year old nephew of the bride, was ring bearer. All attendants wore "A" line full length gowns of bonded crepe in an Empire style with three quarter length bell sleeves trimmed with lace. They wore matching headpieces and carried cascades of yellow gladioli. The attendants wore four different shades of green, beautifully blended to make an early fall colour scheme.

Henry Adema, 5 Railroad St., Brampton was the groomsmen and the ushers were Fred Vanderveen, 35 Sherwood Cres., Brampton and Douglas Goddard, 24 John Street E., Georgetown.

The wedding reception was held in the hall of the Christian Reformed Church where Mrs. Braam received for her daughter wearing a light blue gown with matching three quarter length coat, matching hat with white carnations and a deep pink corsage of carnations. She was assisted by the mother of the groom in an off white gown with matching jacket with pale green trim with matching pale green hat, white accessories and a corsage of yellow carnations.

The bride and groom travelled to Ottawa and to Man and His World, Montreal, for their honeymoon. She chose a double knit mini ensemble of dark brown with rust coloured coat with matching hat and accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Mrs. Vanderveen is a receptionist at Andrew Murray Motors Limited and he is a salesman at Dear's Shoe Store, Brampton. They are residing at 876 Mountainview Road, Georgetown.

Prior to her wedding three showers were given for the bride by friends.

MR. AND MRS. STEVEN PETTO

St. George's Anglican Church was decorated with pink gladioli and yellow mums in standards for the marriage of Patricia Evelyn Collins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Collins, 80 Stevens Crescent, to Steven John Petto, son of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Petto, 35 Raylawn Crescent.

William Cook, R.R. 4, Georgetown was the groomsmen with Peter Corris, 40 West Street, Brampton, and Len Slinson, a cousin, 10 Wes Lambton Drive, Weston, as ushers.

At the reception in the Canadian Legion auditorium the bride's mother received for her wearing a gown of orange ice bonded crepe with a full length jacket of Chantilly lace, mink tone hat and accessories and corsage of Talisman roses and carnations. She was assisted by the groom's mother wearing a gown of peacock blue bonded crepe trimmed in Spanish lace with a three quarter length jacket of Spanish lace, feather down hat and accessories to match. Her corsage was of red roses.

For a honeymoon trip to Bermuda the bride chose a suit with three quarter length coat of winter white with tangerine accessories and a corsage of carnations.

The bride and groom, who are both employed at Northern Electric (where he is apprenticing for a tool and die maker) are living at 53 McMurchy Ave. North, Brampton.

Guests attended from Burlington, Calgary, Windsor, Nova Scotia, Windsor, Ontario, Westport, Port Village, Toronto, Newborough, and Belleville.

Honoured guests were Mrs. J. Roy, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Petto, grandparents of the groom, Toronto, and Mrs. Alfred Collins, Georgetown, grandmother of the bride.

MAIN STREET AND C.N.R. OVERHEAD BRIDGE

Suggested Detours:
Through Traffic [Diagram showing detour route]
Local Traffic [Diagram showing detour route]

The Corporation of the Town of Georgetown will shortly be reconstructing the Main Street and CNR Overhead bridge and its approaches. This project is part of the Corporation's program to modernize the Town's road and street system to handle the demands of present and future traffic. Construction is expected to take eight (8) months and during this time a detour will be provided. Traffic using this detour will be subject to a signposted detour route over the detour temporary bridge. For this reason, the Corporation solicits your co-operation in keeping the traffic using the Main Street detour to a minimum. Possible alternative routes whenever possible, some are shown on the map above.
