

Homer-Ferguson Wedding In St. John's United Church

St. John's United Church, Georgetown, was the scene of a double ring ceremony when Linda Carol Ferguson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Ferguson, 111 Baylawn Crescent, Georgetown, and C. Michael Homer, son of Mrs. Beryl Constantine, 350 Orville Road, Acton, were united in marriage at 4 o'clock on August 17th.

Rev. Kelvin Johnson officiated at the service. The church was decorated with white gladioli and aqua chrysanthemums. The organist was Miss Brenda McNell.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, Mr. Lloyd Ferguson, wore a white satin gown with shawl collar and embroidered flower design on bodice and train. Her shoulder length veil was accented by a crystal decorated headpiece. She carried a cascade bouquet of red roses and white stepotis.

Mrs. Marilyn Murdoch of Victoria, B.C., and sister of the bride was matron of honour. Miss Arlene Crawford of Georgetown was bridesmaid. Both attendants wore identical floor length gowns of white lace over aqua taffeta and carried cascade bouquets of aqua pom poms.

The bride's grandmother, Mrs. McBride, of Northfield, attended the wedding. She wore a rose red two piece silk suit with black accessories and corsage of white chrysanthemums.

Groomsman was David Peel of Sarnia, a friend of the groom. Peter Homer of Acton, brother of the groom and George Ferguson of Guelph, brother of the bride were ushers.

A reception followed at the Riviera Club, Northfield. Mrs. Ferguson received guests wearing a two piece ivory silk suit with pink accessories and a purse corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother also received wearing a brown and beige chiffon dress with beige accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

After the reception, the bride and groom left for a trip to Eastern Ontario and Quebec City. The bride wore a mint green dress with matching coat and hat and brown accessories. Her corsage was of bronze mums.

The bride is an employee of Bramalea Consolidated Developments and the groom is vice principal of Harrison Public School, Georgetown. They are living at 350 Orville Road, Acton.

The bride was honoured at showers given by Mrs. David Shrubsole, Georgetown and Miss June Cunningham, Georgetown.

HORNBY

Hornby North Scouts 411 Club met at the home of Mrs. Jim McKay Saturday morning and from there they were taken by Mrs. John Bradley by car to Campbellville which was the starting point of their hike along the Bruce Trail. The girls and their leaders were accompanied by Jimmie McKay Jr., who also enjoyed the hike.

Each girl took her own lunch which was made up to follow the Canada Food Guide. The girls walked for three hours.

On the trail some of the girls gathered weeds, these are put on a screen and sprayed with gold paint and used for decorations. On their hike they learned to distinguish white pine, Jack pine, cedar, balsam and fir. The girls met two Scouts who were on a first class hike trying to earn a badge and also two hunters.

Fred McLaughlin, Jim Plant and Brian Russell left on Sunday for Huntsville where they will spend a few days hunting. They are staying at Mr. and Mrs. John Bussell's cottage.

The Eden United Church Young People's Society held a Sadie Hawkins' dance on Friday evening, November 1, at the North Trafalgar Community Centre with 35 people attending. Dancing was enjoyed to a tape recorder. The hall was tastefully decorated in Halloween colours. Following the dance hot dogs, cookies and pop were served.
