

NEW SEASON OPENS

FALL FOLIAGE FOR CURLERS "GET ACQUAINTED"

BELE GARBUTT, JEAN MACKENZIE AND BETTY HULL, curling club social committee members, set to the task of putting a touch of autumn outdoors on the North Halton Curling Club dining room in preparation for the club's 'get acquainted nite.' The buffet and dance, Saturday, officially opened the local curling season. A hundred and seventy-two attended the affair.

and on property adjoining Kennedy school.

When Reeve Hunter asked about the possibility of creating an artificial outdoor rink, Cr. Bill Smith told him he would be all for it, except for the matter of $100,000 which it would cost.

Cr. Smith said with lights in the park, this is a future possibility, but meanwhile the present rinks will have to do. He said there is no site available in Moore Park this season, but hopes for this another year.

Penalties: Sheppard 6:58, Hancock 4:52.

Juvs Win 4-2

Hard work and pre-season training paid off for Georgetown Juveniles Tuesday night as they defeated Streetsville 4-2 in their Tri-county opener.

Spirit is high on the club this year which should carry the boys a long way. All the Georgetown players gave a great effort in this one and should give a good account of themselves throughout the season.

Georgetown's goals were scored by Neil (2), Little and Montekton with assists going to Van den Pol, Francis and W. Rogers.

Lane Heads Executive Intermediate Hockey

Both Lane, active in local intermediate hockey, was named president of the new Georgetown Intermediate Hockey Club when officers were chosen at a general meeting on Tuesday, October 29th.

Treasurer is Marshall Bain, secretary Bob Hooper, and the members of the executive committee, Wilf Brownlow, Roy Ayres and Bill Hunter.

The new club, which was given a place to play when accepted in the OHA Intermediate B setup last week, will open the schedule at home Friday, Nov. 15th.

The team will be managed by Bud James and coached by Gerry Inglis who will also play.

Glen's Snoopy Boosts Year's Kitten Record

Snoopy has the new record in feline motherhood. Snoopy, a cat owned by Ross Duncan, RR 5, Georgetown, Saturday gave birth to a batch of six kittens, which isn't in itself unusual but this was Snoopy's third litter in a little over seven months. Since March 23 she has had 16 kittens. Five were born March 23, five June 30 and six Saturday.

The Duncans have found homes for all but those in the most recent litter.

Snoopy's feat breaks the old record of 16 kittens in a little less than a year which was held by Judy, a prolific pussy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Doan, of R.R. 4, Georgetown.
