NORVAL NEWS

The teenagers do not get a chance to do much mischief anymore as the police keep a very close watch on them. However, they did manage to burn a pile of tires in the middle of the highway at the main corner. The fire truck arrived and the firemen put out the blaze to the cheers of the crowd.

It used to be somebody's old 'out house' that the spooks set ablaze on the main corner, but as these are in very short supply now as modern plumbing is taking over in the village, the spooks are going modern too by burning old tires. With gasoline poured over them they burn as well as the wooden 'out houses' and kick up just about as offensive an odor.

Throwing eggs and toilet paper, soaping windows and dodging the police seemed to be the extent of the teenagers' fun. All in all a quiet Halloween.

1st Norval Brownie Pack held their annual Halloween party on their regular meeting night. Costumes were judged by Mrs. Orval Shea and Mrs. Pinnamore. First prize was won by Gill

Harrison dressed as an Indian girl. Lorrie Edgar won second prize dressed as a hockey player Eddie Shack, and Janice Pomeroy dressed as a black cat won third prize.

An evening of games, sing song and lunch of milk and cookies was enjoyed.

Norval United Church UCW with Unit Two in charge held a successful bazaar, bake sale and afternoon tea in the church hall on Saturday afternoon, November 2nd. The social committee of Mrs. Don Murray, Mrs. Orval Shea, Mrs. Wilbert Cleave, Mrs. Spencer Wilson and Mrs. Earl McArthur, were in charge of the afternoon tea with young girls serving and Mrs. Julian Reed and Mrs. Bob Crawford taking the tickets. Mrs. Bob May and Mrs. Bill Laddlaw were in charge of the artificial flower booth. Mrs. Amy Burk, Mrs. Earl Wilson and Mrs. J. Laddlaw were in charge of the aprons. Mrs. Paul Johnson and Mrs. Mac Hyatt were in charge of the baking table and Mrs. Peter Homerooy was in charge of the Kiddie Corner.

Mrs. Harry Lowther and daughters Karen and Kathy of Cornwall, PEI enjoyed a visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Keith Webb recently. She also visited her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Reed of Georgetown, and other relatives in the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Webb held a "family get together" dinner while Louise and the gifts were here. - Mrs. Ed McLean
