SRO Crowd, Happy Time For St. Andrew's Ball

by Ralph Hawes

The highlight of Legion activities last week was without a doubt the Legion Pipe Band's St. Andrew's Ball, which took place on Saturday.

Thanks to the hard work and diligence of Merv Allen and members of the band, the hall was full to capacity with many would-be dancers unable to purchase tickets which in itself is evidence that a larger auditorium is very necessary in this fast growing town.

Ross Hillier and the Country Rhythm Boys were up to their usual standard of perfection. During intermission the patrons were entertained by the Sons of Scotland's highland dancing group plus several selections rendered by the Branch Pipe Band. The buffet supper which was served later in the evening was most enjoyable.

Guests from Branch 55 Woodstock were S. Sandeford and M. Minnard and their ladies. The two Woodstock members are members of that Legion's colour party. Members of the Pipe Band are most grateful to the merchants of town who kindly donated prizes for the dance.

Scottish Wit

Jim Meekison handled the job of MC with his usual Scottish wit, keeping everyone happy. Prizes for the evening went to Pipe Sgt. J. Norton, Lena White, Mrs. J. Gulp, Mrs. J. Meekison and M. Moriarity. Members of the band were unhappy with the absence of Branch Senior officers. They thought that at least one officer should have been there to represent the Branch.

At the Ladies General Meeting last Thursday, Mae Harley, Jean Lockhurst, Alma Capperault and Hazel Dumper were nominated for president; for 1st vice M. Clark, M. Hale, M. Arnold; 2nd vice, H. Dumper, A. Collins, B. Emmond, M. Harley Financial secretary, A. Capperault, M. Harley, R. Timpson; treasurer, A. Capperault, E. Kemshead; recording secretary, R. Timpson, R. Rudiger, A. Nicholson; executive, J. Hayes, B. Emmond, A. McCartney, H. Preston, A. Collins, R. Timpson, H. Dumper. Elections for the all-Britain Pipe Band will be held at the next

This Ratepayer Wants Lower Taxes

31 Byron Street, Georgetown, Ontario

Dear Mr. Editor: In the election December 2, for the Georgetown council we will need:

No fence sitters: those who will side with both sides in any argument. We have one too many now.

No councillors with an axe to grind on behalf of the industry they work for. We had two samples of this a few years ago which has cost the town over $2,000 a month ever since for reduced water and sewage rates to four industries involved.

No one on council who maintains they will not want to be on council unless they can see a 4 or 5 mill increase in the tax rate. We want lower taxes.

No representatives on council who will sell us down the river with any developer that does not produce a 40-50 industrial rating as required, to keep the town in good financial position. And this with no expense to present residents.

If this town is to finish next year with a surplus, expenditures must decrease rather than increase. Let us make sure and vote a council in that will take as their motto: Concern for the taxpayer will be my first concern.

Yours truly, Ed A. Peters

96th Birthday For Mr. Howard Price

Mr. Howard Price celebrated his 96th birthday on Saturday at the Kelly Nursing Home. Many of his friends called to congratulate him.

The UGW met on Tuesday, November 19th. The afternoon unit met at the home of Mrs. Richard Shortill, Sr. There were 8 members and 1 visitor present. Mrs. Healey presided and after the opening remarks called on Mrs. Marshall for the devotions. A letter of thanks was read from Mr. Ferguson, head of the immigration department in Nova Scotia thanking the organization for the help which arrived safely. Various reports were given which showed the year's work had been gratifying. Mrs. Marshall reported for the nominating committee. She said due to various reasons the membership had gone down and they were unable to get officers filled. Some discussion took place and it was decided, with regret that the afternoon unit would have to disband. Miss Hillis took the topic which was on China. At the close of the meeting Mrs. Madill, and Mrs. Marshall, assisted by the hostess, served a dainty lunch.

The evening unit met in the church basement. Mrs. F. J. Shortill had the topic, Mrs. Floyd Shortill the devotional. Mrs. Clarke and Mrs. Don Brown provided the lunch.

Winners at the "suchre" on Wednesday night were Ladies 1st, Mrs. Cora Snyder, 2nd Mrs. E. Davidson; men's 1st W. Sanders, 2nd Wayne Jackson.

Pleased to report Mr. Adams is recovering nicely from Surgery at the Georgetown Hospital. Mrs. Lawr is also much improved and able to get up for a while each day in her home.

Mr. S.G. Bennett, of "Scotdale" won 5 special awards with his Shorthorn cattle at the

Schools Set

We understand from District Commander Capperault that the District Schools of instruction are set up and ready to go and if it were not for the coming holiday season, Branches would be attending them now. However, early January will see them in operation. The schools will be held in three areas. Zones 1, 2 and 3 will have a school, Zones 4 and 5 a school and Zones 6 and 7 will be together. This will lessen the travelling to all Branches in the district.

We were also informed of a District Poppy meeting in January.

Hope to see parents out to the Air Cadet Ball this Friday, November 29. The officers and sponsoring committee need your support and would also like to meet you.

Friday night dart shoot was the best ever. Every chair was taken and darts were being thrown at three boards instead of the usual two. Sorry we don't have a list of winners. Seems we have mislaid it somewhere.

Yes, I live in Georgetown, Of this I'm very proud; I sing out all its praises Right often, clear and loud. And if I'm re-elected As your Deputy Reeve, I'll help with all your problems And every single peev. Art Speight.

Mrs. Leo Jamieson along with many other 4-H home making club leaders spent two days last week in Toronto. They were guests of the Home Economics Dept. of Agriculture and Food. While in Toronto they spent one night at the Lord Simcoe Hotel. About 200 leaders sat down to breakfast along with Home Economists from different counties of Ontario.
