Car Rams Fuel Office Driver in Hospital

Mrs. Nora Tuck, 43 Queen St. was taken to hospital with severe bruises and an injured thumb after the car she was driving went out of control and rammmed Kenner's fuel office at the corner of King and Queen Streets Friday morning.

Police said Mrs. Tuck was making a right turn off King Street West onto Queen when the car jumped the curb, knocked down a fuel pump and hit the building breaking a plate glass window and damaging the corner of the office.

Damage to the car was placed at $300.

Don Tuck took his mother to Georgetown & District Memorial Hospital where she was still a patient at press time.

The accident happened at 6:55 a.m.

Sunday, cars driven by James Albert Hurren of 38 Queen St. and K. J. Cummings of 31 John St., scraped at the Water-Guelph intersection resulting in $120 damage.

graveyard in Greenwood Cemetery. Michael Michalaki read the lesson at the service and Mrs. Robert Burke and Mrs. George C. Hewson were soloists.

Members of the town council attended the service in a group and there was an honour guard of policemen and firemen in dress uniforms. Pallbearers were John T. Armstrong, Graham Farnell, Harold Cleave, Clarence G. Benham, Jack Kaiser and Stanley Allen of Milton.

Honorary pallbearers represented various municipal departments, Reeve Wm. F. Hunter, the council; Alex Blackwell, industrial commissioner; Gerald McCullum, hydro commissioner; Denney Charles, hospital board; Duncan MacMillan, and Fred Harrison, municipal employees; Dick Licata, cemetery board; Bruce Collins, Canadian Legion; Ted Evans, planning board; Ivan Crabtree, board of parks; Leslie M. Clark, J.P.; Erwin Lewis, fire department; John Bellamy, library board; Gordon Richardson, Cedarvale community centre; Tom Massena, ambulance service; Irwin Noble, committee of adjustment; Lyn McLaren, swimming pool; and Robert Beach, county assessors.

A second firm is interested in providing cable TV service in Georgetown homes.

An outline from Rogers TV was presented to council Monday with a proposed agreement which they would offer the town. "It shouldn't be a closed shop," said Cr. Smith. "If they meet our specifications, we should allow them to locate." It was sent to committee for study.

Many Worked For UNICEF

9 King Street East,

Dear Mr. Editor:

The money in all the little orange and black boxes carried by the children in Georgetown area at Halloween has now all been counted and the terrific sum of $1,328.53 sent to UNICEF headquarters.

I would like to express my sincere thanks to all the children who carried boxes, to those who generally donated pennies, nickels, dimes, quarters — and dollars. To the school teachers, Sunday school staffs, the members of Knox Church Ladies Auxiliary who helped count and sort money, to the two women from the Municipal Office who helped wrap coins, and the wonderful staff at the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce who so cheerfully assumed all the extra work involved.

Gratefully on behalf of UNICEF

Mrs. Keith D. Barber
