Member Leaving Hillcrest Women Make Presentation

The afternoon Sewing Circle of Hillcrest United Church held their November meeting at the Hornby United Church. Fifteen ladies sat down to a delicious potluck dinner. Following dinner 14 members and four visitors spent the afternoon quilting. One of the quilts which were completed will be sent away in a bale to the less fortunate. During the year several quilts were quilted including one crib quilt and six bale quilts which were tied.

A short business meeting was held followed by a presentation. Mrs. Clifford Wrigglesworth, on behalf of the Sewing Circle said how sorry they all were to hear they were losing a very willing and faithful worker, Mrs. Stuart Winch. Mrs. Lew Sampson and Mrs. Harold Reed on behalf of the ladies presented Mrs. Winch with a lovely wall clock for her living room. Mrs. Winch extended her sincere thanks to all for the lovely clock and invited everyone to come and visit with her when she gets settled in her new home.

A very successful auction sale was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Winch on Saturday, Nov. 30. The ladies of Hillcrest United Church were kept quite busy at their refreshment booth where they served sandwiches, pie, hot dogs, donuts and coffee.

Mrs. Stuart McMillan entertained eleven ladies at her home on Thursday evening, November 28, at a Tupperware demonstration put on by Mrs. Irma Malloy of Laurel. Several games and contests were enjoyed by the ladies prior to the demonstration of kitchen aids and many useful containers. A very delicious lunch was served by the hostess who was assisted by Mrs. Earl McMillan and Mrs. Art Melanson.

The North Trafalgar Euchre Club held their weekly euchre on Saturday night, Nov. 30. There were nine tables of euchre in play with the prizes going to the following: Craig Jackson, Mrs. Clare Wilson, Mrs. Mel Craig, Walter Barnard, Frank Hasty, and Jack Nixon. Lucky draws were won by Mrs. Wilmer Mason and Joe Ellis.

Mr. Bob Duffy of Toronto, assisted Mr. Donald McLeod with the Eden United Church Service on Sunday morning. Mr. McLeod has been suffering with a bad cold and the flu.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Downs are sorry to hear of their granddaughter's accident. Glenna Giles of Niagara Falls, has been hospitalized for two weeks with head injuries, a broken arm, scrapes and bruises.

After being dragged for sixty feet by a lady motorist who was driving on the wrong side of a traffic circle.

A miscellaneous shower was held at the home of Mrs. Irene Saunders on Friday night, Nov. 29, in honour of Anne Bradley a bride to be on December 13. Mrs. Cliff Hunter, Mrs. Roy Ellis and the hostess were in charge of the shower.

Correction: Mr. and Mrs. Bill Tallyn's friends extend anniversary greetings to them, instead of their sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Leslie.

Birthday greetings to Mrs. Lew Sampson who will celebrate her birthday on Wednesday December 3, Mrs. Pat Phipps and Nora Jean Waters on Dec. 6, Mrs. Fred Workman and Mrs. Henry Peacock on December 9.

Mrs. Jack Thorne and Mrs. J. Brown held a surprise baby shower at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Howden on Thursday evening in honour of Mrs. Kenneth Howden, a mother to be.

The ladies of the Hornby Women's Institute were in charge of the November birthday party for the members of the Milton Manor. The party was held in the auditorium where the tables were decorated with floral decorations and the head table was decorated.

A hundred years ago, a Prisoner in a Turkish fortress in the Holy Land announced a new Revelation of God. His name was Bahá'U'lláh. His "Letters to the Kings" are, without doubt, the most remarkable documents in religious history. Several million people have now responded to His call.

HAVE YOU HEARD OF BAHÁ'U'LLÁH?

Local clergy of all faiths have just received an offer of Bahá'U'lláh's Message. We urge you to investigate it either through your clergyman or by writing:

TROPHIES FOR POSTER WINNERS
DANIEL WARREN AND LIA BOEM, both students in Mrs. M. O. McEachern's Grade 5 class in Park Public School, Georgetown, were first prize winners in the annual fire poster contest sponsored by Halton Fire Prevention Bureau. At a dinner in Milton last week, the awards were presented. Shown with Daniel and Lia are Georgetown Fire Chief Erwin Lewis, Halton Warden William F. Hunter of Georgetown and Georgetown firefighter Jack Cunningham, vice chairman of the Bureau. The winners get to keep their desk pen sets and certificates, while both large trophies will be proudly displayed at Park School for the next year.
