Engage Architect, Addition Planned at Legion Building

by Ralph Hawes

In spite of the inclement weather of last Thursday, fifty interested members were at the branch General Meeting.

A motion was passed to rescind a previous motion to erect steelwork as a first step to the extensions.

This was followed by a motion that an architect be engaged and the extensions on both floors be commenced.

The building committee will now obtain a building permit and proceed, reporting to the members each month.

Through this column we will endeavour to keep members informed with the progress of Branch 120 extensions. Although the meeting was quite brief, everyone seemed to be happy with the decision to proceed with the building.

First Ball

The Legion sponsored Air Cadet first annual ball was most successful. As well as the parents of the cadets, a good representation of Branch members was there, also sponsoring committee and officers of Guelph Squadron and members of the Lorne Scots.

Highlights of the evening were a presentation of roses to Mrs. Rod MacDonald, by Russell Stephens of the sponsoring committee. This was to mark the occasion of the MacDonalds wedding anniversary.

There was also a presentation of an attache case to District Commander David Capperault by president Henry Hale. This was in recognition of the distinction David has brought to the Branch by his appointment to a Dominion committee.

The door prize of Evening in Paris for the lady and Old Spice for the gentleman was won by Ed Hiscock.

Thursday the Branch will be host to the Air Cadets Dance. The first one for the Young gentlemen of the Air Cadets. The menu will be pop, hot dogs, chips and peanuts.

Lucky Night

President Hale had a lucky night at the dart shoot on Friday. The prize winners were Buster Hale, Buster Hale, Albert Porter, Alice Bulmer, Bob Jepson, Ann Collins, Jean Garbutt, Pat Howes (that's how Joe wrote it on the list), Gerrie Osborne and Bernice Emond.

The ladies zone darts was won by the Georgetown team of Ann Nicholson, Jean Garbutt, Maud Norrie and V. Coburn. Port Credit were runners-up.

Ladies, forget not your general meeting is Dec. 12, this month and it's the election of officers, and you must be a paid up member to vote.

Saturday night dance again was successful. Ross was there with his two friends, and in top form. Prizes went home with G. Ball, A. Bulmer, A. Ward, V. Roberts and J. Bradley.
