

Honeymoon in Florida for Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Richardson

A wedding trip to Washington and Florida followed the marriage on November 2nd of Marilyn Elizabeth Tavner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack H. Tavner of Port Credit, and Wayne Richardson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace John Richardson, of McIntyre Crescent.

The Rev. Eric Mills officiated the 3:30 o'clock ceremony in St. George's Anglican Church. Mr. Tavner gave his daughter in marriage, in the presence of her parents and the bride's family. The church was decorated with hundreds of pink and blue flowers.

Bride and groom were piped into the church and into the reception which followed at the Elmer Restaurant. Reception was by Georgetown Girls' Pine and.

The bride wore white tulle gown accented with a pearl sign and cathedral train. Her tulle veil fell from a large coronet of seed pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of red roses outlined with white pom-pom mums, with stephanotis and ivy leaves.

Maid of honour Marilyn Webber, Port Credit, wore blue satin with chantilly lace trim and carried a cascade of pink and blue roses banked with ivy. Bridesmaids Ruth Ann Marchand, Georgetown and Bonnie Douchouse, Schomberg, wore pink taffets with organza overlay and carried cascades of pink and blue roses. Kim Dempster, Lakeview who was flower girl, wore a floor length blue satin trimmed with pink chantilly lace and carried a basket of multi-coloured fall flowers. All the attendants wore headpieces of clusters of carnations and roses in pink and blue.

Wayne Turnbull, Calgary, Alberta, was groomsmen. Ushers were the bride's brother Dave Tavner of Port Credit, Barry Carr and Robert Cowbrough.

Receiving at the Delrex Restaurant, the bride's mother wore a turquoise two-piece suit, feathered hat, black accessories and a pink carnation corsage. The groom's mother wore an ivory white, two-piece dress, feather down hat, brown accessories and a corsage of tangerine carnations. Many telegrams of congratulations were received from California, Windsor, Winnipeg, Kingston and Montreal. The bride's uncle Mr. Coward of Ottawa was toastmaster at reception, and a cousin in Sunndale California phoned best wishes during the reception.

For their honeymoon trip the bride wore a gold brocade suit with black accessories and a double orchid corsage.

They are living in Cooksville. The groom is employed in Bramalea with the national parts department of Ford of Canada. The bride is employed in Port Credit with Schlage Rock Company of Canada.

Guests attended the wedding from Burlington, Port Credit, Windsor, Calgary, Winnipeg and Peel Village and included Mr. and Mrs. W. Y. Shaw, a great-uncle and aunt from Windsor.

The bride was honoured at a personal shower given by Miss Marilyn Webber and at miscellaneous showers by Mrs. Shirley Martin, Georgetown and Mrs. Shirley Dempster, Lakeview, before her marriage.

Show Original Christmas Corsages at W.I. Meeting

Despite the stormy weather there was a good attendance at the December meeting of the W.I. It was held at the home of the president, Mrs. F. Smith. The roll call was answered by each member displaying a Christmas corsage which they had made from material on hand.

A Christmas card sent from the foster child in Korea was passed around for members to see. Plans for the 4-H Home-making Achievement day coming up in Jan. were made. It was decided after some discussion to help in a financial way, the recreation committee

Much Musical Talent Shown at Family Night

The program included an accordion guitar duet by Pat Ellison and Jane Davidson; a piano solo by Keith Robson; music by the union choir, a piano solo by Scott Livingstone; vocal solos by David Sturgess; accordion solos by Paul Thompson; vocal trio by Christina and Leslie Grigg and Susan Power; a choral reading by Mrs. Don Hancock's class; prayer by Linda Greig; piano solo by Lynn Evans; a vocal duet by Brian Livingstone and Craig Selfried; piano solo by Ron McCosh; quartet Leslie Biggs, Laurin Goebel, Cathy Palmer and Lori Wilde; piano solo by Debbie McCosh; an accordion solo by Pat Ellison; a vocal duet by Mary Davis and Dianne Vogan; instrumental trio Paul and Diane Stevenson and Ken Wyles on accordions and guitar and vocal duet by Lawrence Peck and Mark Buttry.

Accompanists were organist Mrs. Walter Townsend and junior choir director Brenda McNeil.

BRIDGE CLUB

Popularity of Georgetown duplicate bridge club is spreading.

Not only does the club draw bridge players from Brampton, Guilph, Acton, Milton, Erin and Toronto but last week two visitors drove all the way from Harris to compete, and liked it so much they planned to come back the next week bringing another couple with them.

Dick Prust and Mike Lorusso were best of the eleven couples playing north-south and Jim Kalil and Richard Raymond took similar honours for east-west.

Other north-south winners were Mrs. Jack Hooper, George Sargent, 2nd; M. Sheppard and J. McGeach, 3rd; Cam Sinclair, W. Wandel, 4th.

In east-west, Mrs. Harry Goldham and Mrs. 'Gob' Collier were 2nd; Olive Logan and Margery Mackenzie, 3rd; Mrs. Wallace Thompson and Syd Heller 4th.

The club ends its year this coming Tuesday, and will then recess until the first Tuesday in January.

and around which were about fifty years old and looked as good as new.

Mrs. Eckert and Mrs. Blackburn were welcomed into the organization as new members.

After partaking of a delicious lunch served by Mrs. Margaret McEnery and Mrs. Grace McEnery each one shared in a gift exchange, which added further to the happy social time.

Sorry to hear Harry Shortill is confined to bed with a sore back. He is suffering considerably. Sincerely hope he will get relief soon.

Congratulations to the ESHO Riding Club in winning the trophy for the fine display of horses and riders and the beautiful float they had entered in the Santa Claus parade in Erin on Saturday.

Miss Lillian Shortill, of Toronto spent Sunday at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Richard Shortill.

Blake French spent the weekend in Georgetown with his aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. Delmar French.

Christian Family Sunday will be on Dec. 15. Church service will be at 12 o'clock. There will be no Sunday School on that day, but young and old are invited to come out, and worship. Stay for lunch after which there will be a Christmas Tree and Santa Claus.

Sympathy is extended to Yvonne and Harold Garton of Pembroke in the loss of his father, who died recently after a severe illness.
