Branch Heavy Contributor To Lions Santa Parade

by Ralph Hawes
Branch 120 was well represented on Saturday, on the occasion of the Santa Claus parade where the Legion Pipe Band was on parade along with 758 Georgetown Legion Squadron Air Cadets, also the Legion sucker-giving clowns were very evident.
The Legion Pipe Band, which all members can be proud of, were outstanding in smartness and their rendering of Pipe Music.
Forty-five gentlemen of the Branch Air Cadets, under the command of Lt. Carl Groszkorth, headed by Guelph Air Cadets Bugle Band were greeted warmly by the public, it was felt that considering this was the second time the Squadron has marched in a parade, they did exceptionally well.
The Good Will Section of the Branch were Bud Hill, Ormie Carter, Art Stamp, Bernie Dore and Dave Stamp.
There was a complaint but it came from the Clowns, they found they could have used about ten times more suckers than they had—Have to look into that next year.
We had hoped to have something to say about the Building Committee meeting of last week, however the answers to our inquiries were vague and noncommittal, we will await the next meeting which we understand will include the architect, electrician, etc., for something more definite to report.
The Branch Car Club has gone over with a bang, in less than two weeks 400 members have been accepted, and with the exception of preparing the membership books all is ready to roll in the first week of Jan.
We hear the New Year's Party this year will really be something. One attraction is rumored to be a chicken dinner, among other things, if you are a member and want a ticket you had better obtain it before Friday, Dec. 20th.
Santa Claus and Cordie King are hoping to see you and your children Thursday evening, December 10th when the Jolly Old Fellow has a gift for all members' children under ten years of age. The children of the Branch Ladies Auxiliary are included.
Thursday, Dec. 12th, this Thursday, will see the ladies elect a president and executive

Branch Heavy Contributor To Lions Santa Parade

President Henry Hale, so this week we would like to take the opportunity to utilize this column to wish all our readers a Happy Christmas.
It's good to write the Legion Notes, we derive much pleasure from it, we receive very little criticism, which we welcome, for then we know someone is reading the notes, to more than counter balance the criticism, we receive many kind words, which we enjoy and appreciate.
It is said a good PRO cannot be a groucher, a moaner or a knocker, such an attitude reflects poorly on the Branch, we try to be none of these. We strive to keep an open mind and refrain from expressing our personal feelings.
Once more readers have yourself a Happy Christmas, we hope you can spend it with those you love.
Errol Stapleton was the lucky one, and took home a big prize for Christmas.
Next week, we hope to publish a Christmas Message from

Funeral Service For Mrs. William Adcock

Funeral service was held Saturday for Matilda Adcock, 74, of 38 West Street, Brampton who died Wednesday, December 4 at Bertram Nursing Home.
Mrs. Adcock emigrated to Brampton from London, England 45 years ago with her late husband William Adcock. Mr. Adcock worked for Flowermont Motors, Town of Brampton and in Malton.
Mrs. Adcock was a member of the Women's Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion and took part in Legion projects until a few years ago when she had to retire for health reasons.
She liked flowers and cultivated them whenever she had the time.
Surviving her are her son, Bert, of Georgetown, and eight grandchildren.
Funeral service was conducted by Rev. R. Ruggie, of Norval. Interment was at Brampton Cemetery.
Pallbearers were Dave Markham, Doug McGillivray, Bob Howson, Robert Ewing, Bob Raymond and Rick Currie.
