HORNBY

Institute Aids Salvation Army with Donation

Mrs. Harry Newton opened her home for the Christmas meeting of the Hornby Women's Institute which was held on Wednesday, December 11. Ladies from the Ontario Hospital who are guests in two of the homes at Hornby were the special guests for this meeting. During the business part a donation was voted to be sent to the Salvation Army for their Christmas work. Mrs. William Pherson, reported on the hat tour which some of the ladies had taken. These ladies put on a display of their work at the summary day which was held on December 6. Each member was asked to bring a Christmas inspiration and these were very interesting and answered by nine members present. There were thirteen visitors present.

Mrs. W. Wilson of Georgetown gave a demonstration on making flower containers from plastic bottles. Mrs. Lev Sampson demonstrated on making letter serviette holders from plastic bottles and Mrs. Clifford Wrigglesworth told how to make fancy Jellies. Mrs. Hugh Connor thanked the ladies for their demonstrations. An exchange of gifts took place and each one of the visitors was presented with a gift from the Women's Institute.

Friends of Myrna Campbell, all be pleased to hear she returned home on Friday from the Milton District Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Bertram Stewart returned on the weekend.

Ann Wylie Newest Member Abitibi 25 Year Club

The Quarter Century Club, Abitibi Provincial Paper, Ltd., increased by one this year when Miss A. Wylie was welcomed into membership.

Miss Wylie a finishing room employee, was presented with her club pin and a manted clock by mill manager George Lockwood at the annual party, held in the Legion auditorium on December 6th.

The evening, a highlight of the club year, started with a reception and a roast beef dinner served by the Legion ladies.

Trevor Williams, club president, was master of ceremonies, and secretary Charles Valentine read messages of congratulations from other company clubs. Mr. Lockwood spoke briefly and George Shaw, vice president manufacturing, spoke for head office in congratulating the club members.

Teacher at Ballinac Active in Ballinac United-Church Work

Rachel Ida Robson Shortill died on Wednesday, December 10th in Georgetown Hospital. She was born July 16th, 1884, at Swinton Park, Croton Township, a daughter of the late Susan Hill and John Robson. She attended Orangeville High School and North Bay Teachers College. After graduation she taught school in West Garrafrax, Elora, Schreiber and Blue Mountain School in Esqueving Township.

She and Fred W. Shortill were married in November, 1920. They resided at the Shortill 'Homestead' farm for 37 years until retiring to their home in Ballinac.

Always active in Church and community affairs she taught in various Sunday School departments at Ballinac United Church and took an active part in all the Women's organizations of the Church as long as she was able.

Mrs. Shortill is survived by her husband Fred W. Shortill, a daughter Joanna (Mrs. Ken Ridler) of Fort William and a son Floyd on the Shortill 'Homestead' Farm, R. R. 1, Georgetown and four grandchildren, Judy and Janice Ridler, Fort William and Nancy and Jean Shortill, of R. R. 1.

One of a family of nine, she is survived by only two sisters, Ella (Mrs. William McNery) of Guelph and Amelia (Mrs. Al Mattless) Cooksville.

The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. Kelvin Johnston of Ballinac United Church, at the McClure Funeral Home, on December 13th. Pallbearers were Fred J. Shortill, Limehouse, Robert Shortill, Guelph; J. Fred Shortill, Guelph and John Cole, Guelph, Gordon Price, Islington and Roy Warne, Guelph.

The many beautiful flowers were carried by nephews, Douglas Hogarth, Peegus, Jesse McNery, Ballinac; Fred Price, Mississauga; Douglas Nodwell, Guelph; Lloyd Renwick, Orangeville and a brother-in-law Harding Price, Limehouse.
