WONDER TIME

and holiday cheer. GIVE HIM ROOM

First of all, that cheer. If you feel liquor makes the celebration, then patronize your local taxi or bus companies. If you MUST drive, confine your consumption to a drink per hour, or allow an hour for each; drink before driving.

And if you take these precautions, look out for the driver who hasn't. He won't be hard to spot on slippery roads. Give him room and you may save his life. or even your own.

For just plain driving, remember there are going to be more cars on the road in the holiday season; they may be moving a bit more slowly, but they are not going to be under as close control as in dry, clear weather. So allow more room, both for other cars around you and for the possible errors or loss of control of other drivers.

Remember that the time of greatest bazard is in the early stages of a new snowfell, or after a light snowfall, which will grease the roads far more than a heavy snowfall.

MAKE SURE

Have your car checked for winter driving, making sare of the tires. Snow tires are good, chains are even , better and study can be effective, but only on ice (and they tend to glose effectiveness as they wear down.)

NEVER drive with your windows obscured by snow, ice or steam, and when cleaning the windows, clean off all 14CHTS as, well - - slush tends to collect and freeze on them and car,
