

STEWARTTOWN

Music and Drama
Night For Senior Schoolers

Wednesday evening, December 17th, was Music and Drama Night at Stewarttown Sr. Public School.

Two plays: 'The Truth Telling Machine' and 'Madame Camel's Beauty Parlour' were well presented by 8A and 8B.

8D and 8E, a choral Speaking Group, gave the old and the new version of 'Twas the Night Before Christmas.'

The music program:

Grade 7 Choir: Emblem of Canada; 'Ships of Newfoundland'; 'Why Do Bells for Christmas Ring?'; 'Joy to the World.'

Grade 8 choir: Streets of Laredo; Angels We Have Heard on High; We Three Kings; Silent Night.

Combined Choirs — Winter Wonderland; Silver Bells; We Wish You a Merry Christmas; School Song.

Miss Thais MacDonald, Music Supervisor directed the choir; and Mr. Robert Pinkerton was pianist.

The December meeting of Esquimaux Women's Institute was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lawson, on Thursday evening last and took the form of the Annual Christmas party.

Mrs. Robert McDonald, president, presided for the short business period, during which a number of donations were made. The program, planned by Mrs. M. Brown, Mrs. Wm. Humphreys and Mrs. W. H. Lawson, consisted of a reading by Mrs. George Atkinson, solos by Mrs. Murray Thomas and Noreen Atkinson, a duet by Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Atkinson, a piano duet by Linda and Paul Lawson and a reading by Alice Armstrong. Mrs. R. Williams was pianist, while all enjoyed a few carols.

Lunch was enjoyed by Mrs. Joe Standish, Mrs. Stewart Hall and Mrs. Wm. Humphreys and Mrs. C. A. Grant.

To complete the party Santa arrived, carrying a sackful of gifts, and distributed them.

Mrs. MacDonald moved a vote of thanks to Mrs. Lawson for the use of her home, and to all who had contributed toward the success of the evening.

St. John's Guild members held their Christmas dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Smith on Tuesday evening, with a good attendance.

Following the dinner, games were enjoyed, and the exchange of Christmas gifts — when members found their Unknown Friend for the year.

St. John's Sunday School Christmas Concert was held on Thursday evening, Dec. 18th in Esquimaux Community Hall.

Recitations, solos, carols and two plays, A Party in the Forest, and The Nativity Scene — were enjoyed by all. Despite the

Remand Youths on Saddle Theft Charges

Two Georgetown youths were remanded to January 6 for a pre-sentence report when they appeared before Judge Kenneth M. Langdon last week charged with theft of three saddles.

The youths, 19 and 17, pleaded guilty to stealing the saddles from Roy Inson, R.R. 3, Georgetown.

They were charged after they attempted to sell the saddles, worth about $1,000 in Brampton.
