Friends in the Hornby district extend get well wishes to Bob Crawford of the Hornby Store, who has been ill for the past week.

Gwen, Ricky and Kenny Rutledge returned home on Sunday after spending their holidays visiting with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Irvine Wallace of Blyth and their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Tyndall, of Clinton.

FOUR GENERATIONS

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Howden entertained members of the Howden Clan on New Year's Day to a delicious turkey dinner and all the trimmings at the Union Hall in Milton. There were 42 members present which included four generations of the Howden family who are Thomas, Edgar, Wayne and Bobbie Howden. Following dinner every member gathered around the Christmas tree for the exchange of gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Howden accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Howden on a trip to the Albion Hills on Sunday where they enjoyed the sights of the ski slopes.

HUTTONVILLE:

MISS WILDA McILVEEN;
863-8285

The Christmas family service was held on Dec. 22 with members of the Sunday School taking part. Bill French led the Responsive Reading, Mr. Arthey told the children's story, Vicki Enge led in prayer. Brenda Pickett read the Christmas story from the Bible. Mrs. Penrose at the organ and the choir sang Glory to God, a difficult song which was very well done. Junior members of the congregation, Bruce French and Chris Arthey took up the collection.

In the evening, the Huttonville COIT held its annual candle lighting vesper and carol service despite the bad weather. The service was followed by a social half hour.

Mrs. Joe Leech and her daughters Kathy and Lealie, of Scotland, spent the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fraser, R.R. 3, Streetsville. The Leeches were very happy to see old friends and neighbors again after their absence from Huttonville.
