A Georgetown youngster, Cal Smith, 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Smith, 45 Maple Ave., has skied his way onto the Caledon Ski Club's Nancy Greene Little League's A team which will represent that club in competitions against other ski centres from throughout Ontario and neighbouring ski country.

Cal was one of 14 young skiers between 10 and 13 selected from 75 hopefuls who have been attending racing school at the Caledon Club for the past week. Another 14 received consolation as B team members.

The candidates selected on their total performance during the week which included daily racing as well as instruction from Gord Croft and assistants from Summit Ski Club, and instruction in jumping from Bernie Clark.

As a member of the 'Greene team' as the boys skiers prefer to call it, Cal will have instruction provided for him for the balance of the season.

Intermediate Raiders Nip Elmira to Move to Top

A 6-5 victory over Elmira has boosted Georgetown Intermediate Raiders in a first place tie with Lucan and Durham atop the Western OHA Intermediate B league.

Playing their best game to date, Georgetown, down 4-2 at one point, turned on the speed in the late stages of the game, Elmira in front of their home fans Friday night.

Stickouts were Raider sniper Don Norton, who fired 4 goals to lead the attack, and Norm Lockhurst, a recent addition to the Georgetown roster whose netminding heroics took a lot of the starch out of the go-go Elmira charge.

It was the first game in a rough section of the schedule which sees Raiders play four times in a span of ten days. They were booked with Port Elgin in the resort town last night, and in the Memorial Arena here and then travel to Durham on Sunday for a collision with the tough Huskies.

Georgetown scored first, Don Norton lifting the lid on one of his best nights at 2:30 from Wayne Davison and Paul Robinson while Elmira was serving a penalty. Elmira tied things at 18 minutes, Miller the marksman from Baird and Eason, and the first period ended with teams deadlocked.

Both clubs started throwing the beef around in the middle period, neither determined to surrender an inch. But B. Baird broke through for Elmira scoring from R. Baird and Eason at the 1:30 mark to capture a short lived advantage. It was erased a minute later on Paul Robinson's first goal of two, Doug Richardson assisting.

Raiders sagged momentarily and Elmira punched home two quick goals, Woodall from McDonald and Miller, and then Miller from Eason and Clements for a 4-2 edge.

Georgetown was playing five men to six when Norton scored from Paul Robinson and Phil Lavell to shrink the difference to a single goal and Robinson evened things before the period.

Y Ski Classes Start Sat'day Hockley Valley

Local ski pupils will be bused to Hockley Valley Saturday to start the first of three sets of lessons arranged by the Georgetown-YMCA-YWCA.

Those enrolled in this first course will leave the Georgetown Market at 8:45 a.m. on each of the four Saturday's between now and February 1 inclusive and return at 5 p.m. after a full day of instruction.

The classes, the first for Georgetown Y at Hockley Valley, will be supervised by instructors from Georgetown and Brampton.

The Y hoped to have an enrolment of 50 adults and children but at press time slightly fewer have taken advantage of the program.

The Georgetown Y will also led was out scoring from North and Doug Richardson.

Skating and puck control belonged to the Raiders in the final stanza. Norton stole the puck and netted the go-ahead goal with a little over a minute gone and Georgetown maintained the pressure to squeeze out a sixth marker, that one Norton's fourth from Glen Cooper.

Georgetown defence left an Elmira puck hawk unguarded momentarily in front of their net and the faux pas produced Elmira's fifth goal, Miller knocked it in from Eason and Grundy after a scramble at the goal mouth.

Lockhurst's alert determination on chance after chance prevented a tie.

H. Bueler in the Elmira cage rated honours with Norton and Lockhurst as the game stars.

Juvs Pass Up Saskatoon Trip

Georgetown hockey juveniles have reluctantly declined an invitation to compete in the annual juveniles hockey tournament at Saskatoon.

Manager Red Asseltine told The Herald the tourney date conflicts with high school examinations here. He said he felt that other than that, the club would have made the trip.

Asseltine said he expects the team may receive a second invitation to a western tournament, this one at Victoria B.C. "If the time is right we'd give that one serious consideration," he said.

Georgetown Juveniles are currently in first place in the Tri-County Juvenile League.

TYKE HOCKEY

Too Much Turkey, But Tykes Take Tanners

by Doreen Long

Bad weather and perhaps too much Christmas turkey kept a number of boys away from the Tyke Skating Party on Friday, December 27. Everyone who did attend enjoyed a full hour of skating and certainly welcomed their hot dog and pop. Colourful crests were given to all tykes. Anyone who hasn't received theirs yet may pick it up any Friday night from Mrs. Long at the booth.

In the exhibition game which followed the skating party, the Flyers in their bright new red sweaters, dominated the play against Acton. They skated away with a 12-2 victory. A word of thanks to the Acton folks for venturing out on such a treacherous night.

Things were back to normal again and we were glad to see once again many faces previously missing during the hectic holiday season. Lots of nice new hockey equipment was quite evident and, we hope, carefully marked. We've heard people remark how nice it is, now that the sweaters are finally here, to watch a game. Much easier for the fellows on the ice too. For those who haven't yet picked their sweater up — please do so as soon as possible. Team sweaters are a must. This was made very clear when each boy was accepted for Tykes. We apologize that they were so late in arriving but there was nothing we could do to hurry them.

Boys without sweaters will not be allowed to play after January 10.

Seniors Will See Action In 4 Town Tournament

by Bud James

Saturday Morning Hockey can't settle down to hockey now that the holidays are over and hope players and fans had a good Christmas and New Years.

After playing their 2nd game of the round robin there have been a few upsets as every team is making their moves and working towards a place in the playoffs.

Coaches are asked to read rule 7 that all players get equal ice time except for semi-finals and finals as the season is short enough for a player to be sitting on the end of the bench.

Coaches are asked to check their sweaters as there are some sweaters missing 3 from red and white and 1 double blue. Coaches who are having practices are not putting the equipment back in good order as it is just being

JUNIORS SCRAMBLE TO TIE

Get Set to Meet Milton

Georgetown Junior C Raiders watched a three goal lead disappear and had to scramble to earn a single point against Bowmanville here Sunday.

Bowmanville fired the game's last goal at 14:41 to gain a 4-1 tie, against the locals. The final goal came 31 seconds after Ray Inglis had apparently won the game for Raiders with a penalty shot.

For Georgetown it was the fifth tie of the campaign and their 25th point. They are currently deadlocked with Richmond Hill in fifth place in the 10 team league.

Bowmanville is five points back.

Georgetown put together a 2-0 lead in the first period, Brent McMullen scoring from Bill Dwyer and Chapman; and then Dwayne Hay striking from Dwyer and Gerry Nash.

Mid-way through the second period Brad Johnson opened the lead to 3-0 from Frank King, but the Georgetown shut-out ended there. Mike Donohue and Rick Woolner struck for rapid fire goals at 14:25 and 15:26 to make it 3-2 at the end of the period.

Steve West turned Doug Taylor's pass into the equalizer at 3:25 of the third period.

Georgetown was awarded their penalty shot when a Bowmanville defender grabbed the puck in his crease during a scramble, and Ray Inglis made the best of it.

Bud Howes became the Bowmanville hero when he knotted the score with a little over five minutes left.

The traditional Milton-Georgetown rivalry rekindled Sunday when the second place Merchants hope to use Raiders to vault into first place.
