DID YOU KNOW? Relatives of the fellow who insists on driving after drinking may find, one evening, that he stopped after work for a fast beer.

Teachers' Conference

Tom Ramautarsingh of the Georgetown high school teaching staff, under whose chairmanship the District OSSTF Development Conference has been organized for the past three years, told The Herald this week over 1100 secondary school teachers will attend this year's conference tomorrow in Toronto.

Ramautarsingh said an interesting day's program has been organized for the conference which will be the last that Georgetown, Acton, and Milton high schools' teachers will attend with the Peel county teachers. Due to the new administration boundaries, the North Halton teachers will join in with Oakville and Burlington in future conferences.
