

ICE CARNIVAL PLAYS TWO PERFORMANCES, BOTH SRO

Georgetown Figure Skating and Gretel number alone. Club's fourteenth annual ice They came in all sizes and varieties. There were bees, bugs, success, with the arena jammed flowers, rosebuds, butterflies, to the rafters at both the after- birds, owls, ghosts, candy canes, noon and evening performances. peppermint sticks, gingerbread boys and girls, moon beams, Two hundred and seventeen juniors took part in the Hansel animals and fairies.

Kathy Sue Rossiter as Bird of Paradise

Three of the show's smallest performers wait for their turn in the spotlight.

Some of the Cast of Cactus Capers

Each of the above mentioned species was costumed beautifully, and dressed by hard working mothers in the background.

Starting as Hansel and Gretel were Kerri Hegstrom, and Heather Moores, respectively, while the wicked witch, without whom there would be no story was played by Leanne Lewis.

Soloists featured in the fairy tale were Bird of Paradise, Kathy Sue Rossiter, Candy Queen, Sandra Fendley, Miss Moonbeam, Sharon Watson, Sharon Hewitt, the Dawn Fairy, and Ted Kewley as the sandman.

As in all productions the tiny ones who were left stranded, or fell down each time they got up, stole the hearts of the audience.

The second half saw the more sophisticated numbers by the intermediates and seniors. There was nothing old fashioned about these numbers. There was Tijuana Taxi, starring Leslie Johnson as Tijuana Cutie, Hello Dolly with Debbie Lounds as Dolly, Thoroughly Modern Millie with Colleen Few being the Millie, made famous by Julie Andrews, and finally a "Flapper Pair" played by Lisa Gillett and Susan Lee.

Four guest stars added to the lustre of the performance, nine year old Michelle Nesdale, Carol Farmer, Ricky Phillips, and Jane MacMillan. Ricky Phillips lives here in Oakville but skates at the Oakville Club, while Jane MacMillan was a member of this club before moving to Port Credit.

The show was staged and choreographed by club professionals Gale Livingstone and Cheryl Stull, and convened by Jim Lindley. Ron Hill acted as master of ceremonies for both shows.

BALLINAFAD

Show British Slides at Church Women's Meet

Mrs. Archie Lawr was hostess to the January meeting of the U.C.W. Mrs. Jamieson presided and after the opening exercises called on Mrs. Ernie McEnery for the devotions. The World Day of Prayer coming up in February was discussed and the final arrangements will be announced at next meeting.

Roll call was answered by members paying their dues for the year. When the business part of the meeting was over Rev. and Mrs. Kelvin Johnston entertained by showing slides of their trip to Britain. Mrs. Ruth Shortill and Mrs. Marshall assisted the hostess in serving refreshments.

There was not a large crowd at the dance on Friday night but those that attended report a good time dancing to the music supplied by MacDougall's Orchestra.

Friends and relatives were saddened to hear of the passing of Miss Jessie McKay, who died on Sunday morning after a prolonged illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Jamieson of Galt, were visitors at Frank Smiths on Tuesday of last week.

Sympathy is extended to the Robinson family in the sudden passing of Mr. George Robinson in Guelph on Tuesday. His widow, the former Marquerite Kentner lived in Ballinafad for a number of years and attended Blue Mountain school.

Mrs. Cameron McEnery has returned to the Georgetown hospital for further treatment.

Several in the community are confined to their homes with the flu. Elwood and Garry Snow have been quite ill. Mrs. F. J. Shortill is recovering after a bout with the bug.

The EB-HO Riding Club held a general meeting at Ballinafad Community Centre Saturday, Jan. 25. There were over 60 members present. The show program for the coming year was established. The club operates year round, January thru December. The executive for 1969 are: president, Jim Corbell; vice president, Dunc McDougall; secretary Donna Hamilton; treasurer Lois Burt. Directors: entertainment, Ruth Burt; English division, Audrey Wood; western games Bryn Robertson; western performance, Jim Corbell; newsletters Carol Corbell, Carol Robertson. Questionnaires were mailed out earlier and were returned at the meeting. Members were asked to submit their ideas to the executive if they wanted any changes. The most popular request was for trail rides and some members wanted even more horse shows. The program for the coming year includes 6 horse shows, 2 trail rides, 2 fun gymkhanas and one inter-club competition with Rockwood Trail Riders. The next meeting will be a skating party at Hillsburgh in February. An open invitation is extended to anyone interested in joining the club.
