per, officials of the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce were again appointed as auditors for 1969 by the membership present.

Retiring president J.F. Duffield, in a short ceremony, turned over to the incoming president the society flag and standard; official papers and brass bell used to call meetings to order.

Past president Duffield was called on to present a Life Membership Certificate to the society secretary-treasurer J. Norman Bird. The membership present showed great pleasure in this surprise presentation.

W. J. Packham, director of No. 6 district of the Ontario Horticultural Association was introduced as guest speaker for the evening by J.F. Duffield. Mr. Packham spoke briefly on the work of the Association and No. 6 district and then, assisted by Mrs. Packham, projected outstanding coloured slides of area flower shows, convention highlights and the O'Keefe Centre spring flower show of last year.

Refreshments were served to close out a busy but most enjoyable evening.
