JUMPIN' GYM-ENY — Things are hopping at Georgetown's Y's weekly gym classes these evenings as children and teens alike burn off some of their pent up energy. The young gymnasts make good use of the high school facilities and lately more and more have discovered gym sessions as a way to enjoy summer games and exercise in the dead of winter. Here Mrs. Dorothy Gillespie, a Y instructor, watches Gay Harley leap off the spring board as others wait their turn during a Tuesday night girls' class.

Junior boys find fun in exercise as they tumble on the mats at gym class. They receive instruction from Bill Bingham, Tom Dean, and Bill Post. The Y's team of gym leaders includes Rick Chaplin, Gail Young, Kathryn Keir, Kathy King, Leslie Catling, Janice Martin, Ann McDonald, Marilyn Sigurdson, Sylvia Katterwe, and Janice Asseltine.

1968: Mrs. Milree Armstrong, Mrs. Mildred Ford, Mrs. Marg Gordon, Mrs. Joan Aggs, Mr. E. W. Carter, Mr. Jim Egerton, Rev. Walter Ridley, Mr. R. Smith.

In closing we sincerely hope that 1969 will be a prosperous year for our town and your Y.M. Y.W.C.A.

Next Week: The Youth Scene Again.

SAFE DRIVING

The safest way for a driver to slow down or stop his automobile on a slippery, icy road surface, is to "pump" the brake pedal rapidly says the Hamilton Automobile Club. Apply the brakes quickly, and as quickly release them for an instant. Repeat the on-and-off process to a full stop. Hard, steady brake pressure will lock wheels, interfere with steering and start or prolong skidding.

Y TALK

'Y' Cooperating in Survey Of Recreational Possibilities

by Jim Egerton

Wednesday, January 29 the Georgetown Y.M.-Y.W.C.A. held its seventh annual meeting at the high school. Attendance was cut down because of the fog or "bloomin'" film as some like to call it.

The meeting was chaired by Connell Smith. The opening prayer was given by Cindy Cooper and the singing of O Canada was led by Julian Reed. Rev. R.O. Scrivens delivered a speech entitled "The Needs of Youth."

Mr. Scrivens had obviously done his homework on this topic. He said the majority of teens were more educated, more aware thru TV, radio, television than the teens of thirty years ago. Other distinguishing marks of today's teens are they are very impatient on material things, they want to know desperately about human needs, and he was quick to point out, they are confused and frustrated about what is going on in this world today.

What do the teens expect from the parents? Trust and to be trusted, be able to communicate — speak freely and intelligently. They would like a direct approach to problems, not just "no". And last but not least a mutual trust.

What would the teens like in general? To have a say in school affairs. They would like to be supervised, not organized. They would also like to see the high school gym open in summer.

Mr. Scrivens closed his speech about Georgetown in general. What do we actually have? A crowded arena, pool halls, bowling alleys, restaurants, and the inevitable Dairy Queen. He would surely like to see something done. After his talk Mr. Scrivens was thanked by Mrs. Kathy Kaulback and presented with a gift.

Following the talk, a selection from "My Fair Lady" was given featuring Mrs. Milree Armstrong, Mr. Ron Hunt, Mr. Ralph Ursel. A sing-a-long followed with Julian Reed and his group the "General Store".

The meeting then got down to brass tacks and the business of the "Y" was in full swing. All committee reports were given and accepted.

Mrs. Mildred Ford, president of the Y pointed out to the gathering, that the Y has sent representatives along with those of local organizations and service clubs to two meetings to date. The prime purpose has been to discuss methods of formulating a plan of study of present local recreational services, and of future possible needs.

In her report she said, "as we set our sights for 1969 our goals should be: for increased involvement of youth; to reflect a new concept and understanding of membership; to extend the scope of the Y to work with more people and organizations in our community; and to attract, train and involve more lay leaders, committee members and board members."

Thanks was extended to the following instructors for 1968:

Bill Bingham, Peter Carter, Fred Daly, Tom Dean, Dorothy Gillespie, Stan Hegstrom, Duke Wilson, Randy Hibbert, Jane McNally, Bill Post, Mary Simpson, Erwin Schandelemeier, Fred Schouten.

Also to the following leaders for 1968:

As I said in one of my earlier columns I now can give you the campaign report for 1968. The chairman was Julian Reed.
