

SIXTY - SEVEN DISCOVER SKI SKILLS

Y ski class instructors are so enthused about the progress of their 67 pupils they have agreed to donate their time and extend the lessons an extra week—to February 16.

The ski program was originally a four-week session with instruction on local hills every Sunday.

The pupils, ranging in age from eight years to adult, were for the most part rank beginners at the outset.

They have been brought along to their current ability level by chief instructors Randy Hibbert and Bruce Buckrell, and instructors Paul Sanderson, Fred Schouten, Leslie Owens, Ann Riley and Cathy Peters.

The ski director is Mrs. Ann Smith.

From top, four Georgetown Y ski class instructors Ann Riley, Cathy Peters, Paul Sanderson and Fred Schouten.

Games with Lucan Promise Exciting Hockey Climax

Fate and the schedule-maker are helping Georgetown Intermediate Raiders in their goal of coping the Western Intermediate B Hockey League championship in their first year.

With the home stretch ahead of them, Raiders get Paul Robinson back this week after an enforced rest. And with Lucan the biggest stumbling block in their path, Raiders get just what they need to capture a pennant, back to back games with the Lucan club in the last two scheduled games.

The Georgetown schedule has eight remaining games, two against Cheltenham and one with Seaforth this week; meetings with Acton, Elmira, and Hespeler next week, and then the Lucan collisions.

Georgetown stayed on course for the top Sunday by bumping Hespeler 9-4 in handy fashion. Jack Gudgeon was the team leader firing three goals. League leading scorer Blake Inglis scored twice and Jim Blair, Terry Rodgers, Bill Wheeler, and Max Stafford got the rest.

Caswell, B. O'Krafka, Scoins and Ball beat Georgetown goalie B. McArgle.

Raiders outscored Hespeler in each period: 2-1, 3-1 and 4-2. Penalties were even at five apiece.

ICE CHIPS: Georgetown hosted Seaforth last night in a game postponed from an earlier date.

Friday, Cheltenham Harvesters will be here with a lot of faces familiar to Georgetown Raider fans of a few years back including goalie Barry Smith and the Thompson brothers Gord and Wayne.

TRI-COUNTY HOCKEY

by Art Sheppard

Georgetown Novices were defeated 6-0 by Chinguacousy in the first game of their best of three on Sunday.

An exhibition game Tuesday, February 4, between Georgetown Midgets and Toronto St. Michael's Midgets saw the locals gain a 6-5 win. Kudrass and Fowler each scored twice, and Davies and Williams each scored once for the winners.

On Sunday Georgetown Bantams defeated Newmarket Bantams 4-1 in an exhibition game played here.

The winners of the lucky draw sponsored by the Georgetown Minor Hockey Support group were:

JUVES LAY PLANS TO RAISE $$$

At a team meeting Sunday, Georgetown Juveniles, still swimming in visions of their proposed cross-country trip and west coast tour, sifted through ideas on raising much of the necessary $3,000.

Their conclusions will see a car wash, dances, and lucky draws — for openers.

The boys themselves will operate the car wash and a teen dance, dates of which have not yet been set. The team's mentor's, manager Red Asseltine, coach Junior Beaumont, Bill James and Carl Petterson will take care of arrangements for an adult dance and a weekly 50-50 draw.

A railway coach has been ordered for the team and officials.

To date the following players have confirmed they will be making the April trip — Bill and Bob Neil, Steve Waters, Barry Shortill, Rod Halls, Warren Rodgers, Steve Rodgers, Roger Little, Bob Monckton, Doug Wiles, Al Francis, Don York, Bill Bauer, John Madsen, Jack Van den Pol, Doug McDonald, Paul Presswood, Mike Clarke.

Hope National Honours Again Youth Bowlers

Georgetown Youth Bowling officials have high hopes for the teams that will carry local colours in the Four Steps to Stardom tourney which will have its claim in the national Youth Bowling Championships.

The Georgetown team was determined after a month of bowling at Georgetown Bowl. It includes 42 young Bantams, Juniors and seniors.

Last year, the Georgetown Bantams doubles team of Gary Miller and Bob Montgomery brought home the National Bantam Doubles title from the national finals in Edmonton.

This year's team, which some observers feel is stronger in all departments than last year's got their first test in the Central Ontario finals later this month. Teams or singles bowlers successful there will progress to the provincial finals, and possibly the national finals, the "fourth step".

Representing Georgetown singles competitions will be Bantams Gary Miller and Carolyn Barber, juniors Brad Smith and Lynne Wilkes, and seniors Jim Nicholson and Debbie Ellsiger.

Team members are:

BANTAM BOYS: Doug Enman, Danny Diamond, David Warman, Rick Gourlie, David Thomson, Joey Fendley.

BANTAM GIRLS: Patricia Duncan, Susan Storey, Cindy Rea, Wendy Bouskill, Sue Berneche, Sandra Bratkin.

JUNIOR BOYS: Michael Warman, Steve Burns, Rick Haines, Craig Johnston, Tom Hall, Doug Wodhams.

JUNIOR GIRLS: Debbie Moore, Yvonne Bratkin, Cheryl Breen, Ruth Finlay, June Warwick, Karen Archibald.

SENIOR BOYS: Stan Kynnersley, John Reaume, Rick Clarke, Robert Freeman, Bob Wilson, Phil Southon.

SENIOR GIRLS: Marilyn Sigurdson, Gwen Paterson, Jonne Minterm, Janice Gummerson, Lorna Nicholson, Beth Richardson.

Choose Teams for High School Bowl Competition

Teams to represent Georgetown and District High School in the Eastern Canada High School bowling championships were determined Sunday in a roll-off at Georgetown Bowl.

High scorers after three games and therefore team members were:

GIRLS: Marilyn Sigurdson 670, Gwen Paterson 618, Janice Gummerson 582, Debbie Ellsiger 575 and Beth Richardson 559.

Boys: John Reaume 775, Steve Lounds 686, Jeff Eason 669, Rick Clarke 668, and Gord Barclay 664.

Last year the Georgetown high school's girls team went as far as the finals.

TYKE HOCKEY

Three very close games were played here on Friday, February 7th. New York and Montreal played to a scoreless tie, while Boston squeaked out a 2-1 win over Toronto and the third game of the night was also a scoreless match. Chicago vs. Detroit. Games for Friday, 14th are as follows:

5 p.m. Montreal vs. Detroit
5:40 Chicago vs. Toronto
6:20 Boston vs. New York

Don't forget this Friday, February 14th is the picture night. I'm sure everyone will want to have one of these pictures to look back on in later years so please have the boys down in plenty of time — other than the first game, ten minutes before — Thanks.

The Flyers played Welland in an exhibition game in conjunction with the Midget tournament here on Saturday. With such a large hometown audience a win was a must. They successfully downed Welland 2-1, with S. Wakfer firing both goals, and R. Hewitt collecting both assists. The Flyers will journey to Welland this Sunday for a return match.
