NORVAL

Fourth Generation to Wear Baptismal Robe

Mr. and Mrs. Ed McLean attended the Baptism of their granddaughter, Dorothy Anastasia, 'Stacey' daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Hutton, RR 3, Streetsville, on Sunday Feb. 9 in St. Stephen's Anglican Church, Norval. Canon J. E. Maxwell performed the ceremony during the morning worship service.

Mr. and Mrs. William Cooley of Brampton and Miss Laurie Maxwell of Hornby were the godparents.

For her baptism, Stacey wore a long white hand-made Christening robe all beautifully hand-embroidered. The robe was made by Sarah Johnston in 1883, daughter of Dr. William Johnston, who was one of the first settlers of Brampton, on crown land where the Dale Estate is now located. She married Hardy Baskerville and the robe has been worn by 4 generations of her descendants. Her daughters Mrs. Fred Hutton, Brampton West and Mrs. L.J.C. Bull of Brampton, their children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Stacey and her cousin, Jimmy Hutton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hutton, RR 3 Streetsville who also wore the robe when they were baptised are the fourth generation to wear the Christening robe. They are the grandchildren of Mrs. Clarence A. Hutton, The L.J.C. Bull family lived for several years on the town line south of Norval around the '30s and will be remembered by many in the district.

Following the service, Mr. and Mrs. Hutton entertained at a buffet luncheon at their home for relatives and friends who were present for the baptism.

Union Presbyterian Church WMS met at the home of Mrs. Jack McDonald on Monday afternoon February 10 with Mrs. Eric Leslie and Mrs. Art Von Zuben as assistant hostesses.

Mrs. Clarence Anderson presided and opened the meeting. The roll call was answered with an item from the Presbyterian Record. Mrs. Art VonZuben gave an excellent report of the annual-Presbyterial WMS meeting she had attended recently in Clarkson. Mrs. Leslie Young introduced the new study book 'New Acts of Missions' and gave a very inspirational message. During her talk she used two poems from the book 'Prayers of Life' by Michael Quoist. She opened her talk with the one called 'Lord I Have Time.'

The devotional was given by Mrs. Alec Taylor reading the scripture lesson and Mrs. Art McKane led in prayer. Mrs. C. G. Bishop closed the meeting with prayer.

During the business it was decided to look after the luncheon at the synodical to be held in Brampton on April 22, 23, and 24. April 23 will be in charge. The committee appointed to be in charge of the luncheon were Mrs. Art McKane, Mrs. Jack McDonald, Mrs. C.G. Bishop and Mrs. Clifford Cook.

A mistake was made in the report of the Norval Presbyterian Church Annual meeting. In place of Arthur Clark on the Board of Managers for another 3 year term it is Arthur Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence May have returned home from a very enjoyable 3 weeks holiday in Barbados. The excellent weather and the quiet little island combined to make a relaxing holiday in the sun for the Mays.

— Mrs. Ed McLean

Halton Farmers Marketed 29 Thousand Hogs in '68

The highlight at the Halton Hog Producers' annual meeting held at the Agricultural office in Milton, on Tuesday, Feb. 4, was the discussion on the new system for hogs in Canada.

Mr. John Allan, the Grades Standards Officer for Ontario led the discussion. It was suggested that if hogs are relatively lean they could be marketed to advantage at somewhat heavier weights than in the past. This means that rather than having a 150-155 lb. carcass, this might be increased to 160-170 pounds, providing these hogs are not too fat.

Allen Brownridge, secretary, Halton Hog Producers' Association, stated that 13 premiums of $10, had been paid to Halton farmers purchasing approved hogs in 1968. This subsidy is to be continued in 1969, with anyone purchasing an approved hog to contact the secretary.

In 1968 Halton marketed 29,309 hogs, an increase of 9.8% over 1967. 49.2% of these hogs were Grade A, an increase of 2% over the previous year. This compares to 43.7% Grade A in Ontario. Thus, Halton is producing more and better quality hogs.

Officers and executive are:

President, Tom Broughton, R.R. 2, Oakville; vice president, Thomas Foster, R.R. 3 Campbellville; secretary, Allen Brownridge, RR 2, Georgetown.

Directors: Esquering — Ron Davis, R.R. 5, Milton; Doug Robertson, R.R. 5, Milton; Frank Wilson, R.R. 3, Georgetown.

NORVAL

Public Relations Stressed at Norval Women's Institute

The regular monthly meeting of Norval Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Graham, Georgetown, on Thursday evening, Feb. 6 with the president Mrs. Joe Murray presiding.

The roll call was answered with "Name one way in which progress is changing our lives."

Mrs. Keith Webb, public relations convener, was in charge of the program. She gave an excellent motto 'One of Today's weaknesses is to distinguish our needs from our greeds.' Mrs. John Bird, of Ashgrove, president of the district WI, was the guest speaker and spoke on public relations. Then she divided those present into two groups and they each planned a public relations program.

Mrs. John Wilson district historical research convener, was present with the district history book. She is compiling the history of the WI in the district. Mrs. L. May displayed the Norval history book which was of interest to all.

Mrs. Lorne Cleave assisted the hostess in serving lunch and a social time was enjoyed.
