League AA Champs, Midgets Prep for Ontario Playoffs

The Georgetown Midgets eliminated Preston last week by winning two games straight in a best of three series. The games were won 10-1 and 4-0 scores. This gives Georgetown the Tri-County Double A championship and puts them into the Ontario playoffs.

The first game was played in Preston and was a wide open contest. Georgetown's attack was led by Marty Fowler and Juri Kudrasovs who each scored two goals and three assists. Scoring for Georgetown were: Fowler from Kudrasovs and Fendley; Kudrasovs from Fowler and Fendley; and Heppes unassisted.

The second game at home Thursday saw a closer game with Jerry Neil opening the scoring from Marty Fowler. Benny Heppes scored from Paul Fendley and Bob Sargent; Bruce Davies from Ray Inglis; and Paul Fendley unassisted. John Blair worked both games in the nets for Georgetown and allowed just one goal while turning in two very strong performances.

Paul Fendley has been named the Most Valuable Player of the Tri-County Midget League.

Doug Unsworth has been named the Most Valuable Goal-tender of the Orillia Midget Tournament in which the team competed at Christmas.

The Georgetown Midgets are now sitting idle waiting for the winner of the series between Barrie and Orillia.
