

AIMS OF SCOUTING

Scouting aids in the building of character, helping boys to develop into responsible citizens of their country.

Scouting does not compete with either the church, home or school. Scouting recognizes that these three institutions are the major influences to the building of good character in youth, and that Scout training is supplementary and complementary to them.

NATIONAL SCOUT AND GUIDE WEEK

FEBRUARY 16th to 22nd

AIMS OF GUIDING

The aim of the Girl Guides of Canada — Guides du Canada is to assist girls from 7 to 18 in the formation of character, by encouraging them to be responsible citizens of their country and the world; by introducing them to adventure and the out-of-doors; by training them in skills which will help them to become good homemakers, and to experience the joy of giving service to others.

The Scout Promise

I promise to do my best,
To love and serve God
My Queen, my Country and my fellow men,
And to live by the Scout law.

The Cub Promise

I promise to do my best to do my duty to God and the Queen, to keep the Law of the Wolf Cub pack; and to do a good turn to somebody every day.

Guides - Brownies - Rangers & Their Leaders

Saturday, Feb. 22nd is World Thinking Day

It marks the Birthday of both Lord and Lady Baden-Powell the founders. It stresses the international aspects of Guiding and its important role in world friendships. On this day, Guides and Brownies, think of their sisters in the world organization, and attend meetings and special functions. Thinking Day encourages contributions to the world organization to stimulate guiding in all countries of the world.
