

PINBUSTERS PROGRESS TO PROVINCIAL — A Georgetown Youth Bowling team of Junior Boys is well along the same road that ended in a National championship for a Bantam doubles team last year. The juniors have already taken two steps in the Four Steps To Stardom tournament winning locally and at the Zone rollofs. The next step, the provincial rollofs, will be held at Plantation Bowl in Toronto, Sunday. Standing, from left, are Mike Warman, Craig Johnston, and Steve Burns. Seated are Rick Haines and Tom Hall.

Intermediate Raiders Look Good, Four Straight Wins

It's a rare feat when a hockey team improves its points total by eight in five nights — but that's what the busy Georgetown Intermediate B aggregation accomplished from Feb. 18 through Feb. 22 inclusive.

In assembly line fashion Gerry Inglis' crew edged Fergus 4-3 in Fergus on the 18th, whipped Acton here on the 19th, took Thursday night off and then bounced Elmira 8-5 here Friday the 21st; and downed Hespeler in an away game Saturday the 22nd.

In the schedule climax here Friday night, Georgetown meets Lucan (Centralia) one of the five teams bunched near the top with designs on the loop title. Durham, Seaford and Elmira are the other hopefuls.

Five different Raiders scored goals in Hespeler Saturday. Gerry Inglis, Blake Inglis, Paul Robinson, Wayne Davison and Terry Rodgers did the winners sniping, while Ball, B. O'Krafi and Peori replied for Hespeler.

Friday in Georgetown Memorial Arena, Raiders fell behind 3-0 in the early going and then came on strong to snatch away victory. Five unanswered third period goals turned the tide.

Blake Inglis showed the way with three goals, Jack Gudgeon fired two, and Gerry Inglis, Terry Lane, and Don Norton contributed the rest. For the Polar Kings it was Rick Baird, Abner Martin, Joe Grundy, Ken Miller and Eric Plein.

Baird and Wheeler paired off in this one and drew fighting majors.

The night before in Fergus Jack Gudgeon scored an overtime goal to snap a four-all deadlock after it appeared Georgetown were about to bow to the lowly Thistles.

Blake Inglis' goal with a minute and thirty four seconds left in regulation time forced the extra period. Jack Gudgeon got both of the first two Raider goals. Jack Davidson, Chris Raven and Ossie Harper did the Fergus scoring.

The Georgetown unit that has been rolling toward the league title with an impressive determination of late has been composed of: Norm Lockhurst, Glen Cooper, Phil Lavell, Terry Lane, Wayne Davison, Don Norton, Paul Robinson, Blake Inglis, Gerry Inglis, Jim Blair, Jack Gudgeon, Bill Wheeler, Terry Rodgers, Max Stafford, B. Currie, Junior Beaumont, B. McArdle.

TYKE HOCKEY

by Doreen Long

Once again Tyke fans were treated to three well played and very exciting games. How much more exciting could it be than to play full time and finish in a scoreless tie? That is right, Boston, the first place team, was kept scoreless by a hustling Detroit team. Montreal in the second game of the night scored twice but so did Chicago giving us another tie and some fine hockey. Toronto, the only winner of the night, downed New York 3-1.

The standings as of Feb. 22, 1969 are:

|----------|----|
| Boston | 20 |
| New York | 17 |
| Detroit | 17 |
| Toronto | 14 |
| Montreal | 11 |
| Chicago | 11 |

Games for Friday, Feb. 28th. 5:00 p.m. Toronto vs. Montreal 5:40 p.m.—Detroit vs. New York 6:20—Chicago vs. Boston

With Detroit and New York tied for second in the standings, it's plain to see the second game of the night next Friday will really be in interesting.

I'm sure, though, if you were to ask any of the four big fellows:

SMILE
Wellington: Can I borrow a cigarette?
Cromwell: Well, you ought to be able to — you've had enough practice.

lows out on the ice, they would say all Tyke games are interesting, fun and exciting too. If you don't believe us, come down some Friday night soon between 5 p.m. and 7 p.m. and see for yourself. You'll enjoy it, we are sure.

TRI-COUNTY HOCKEY

by Art Sheppard

Georgetown Bantams who eliminated Chinguacousy in two games to win the Tri-County Minor Hockey Association group honours, have tied Orillia a game each in the first round of the Ontario Minor Hockey Association 'AA' group play downs.

Georgetown lost 6-4 in the opening game at home on Thursday February 20. The locals held a 2-1 lead at one point in the game, but Orillia pulled ahead in the third period with two unanswered goals to win the first one. Scoring for Georgetown were F. Arnold, B. Beaumont, B. Osborne and B. Dumper.

On Sunday, Feb. 22 Georgetown went back to Orillia and won a 2-1 decision to even the series at one game apiece. B. Dumper and A. Ovenden scoring for Georgetown in this one.

The third game in the best of five series will be played in Orillia on Friday Feb. 28th, the fourth in Georgetown, March 6 and the fifth game if necessary will be played in Orillia.

* Any team plays better when the home fans cheer them on, this team is no exception. They would appreciate your vocal support.

NOVICE

Tri-County Consolation Series:

Milton 5 Georgetown 1. The Georgetown Novice team went to a tournament in Penetang on the weekend. In two games played it was Georgetown 1 Toronto 5 and Georgetown 0 Richmond Hill 1. Next weekend the Novice team will compete in a tournament at North Bay. Good luck gang.

PEEWEE

The local PeeWee team were knocked out of the Tri-County group play-offs, losing two in a row to Chinguacousy. First game Chinguacousy 7 Georgetown 2, the second game a real cliff hanger, Chinguacousy 4 Georgetown 3.

MIDGET

The Georgetown Midgets opened their OMHA series with Orillia at home Monday Feb. 24 and return to Orillia Friday, Feb. 28.

JUVENILE

One of the best Juvenile teams Georgetown has come up with in a long time was eliminated from Tri-County group play-offs when they were defeated 3-2 by Chinguacousy on Thursday, Feb. 20.

They will keep in shape for their trip to the west coast by competing in the Tri-County Consolation round and tournaments at Milton and Preston.

Reach Finals, Flyers Miss Tyke Championship

Always a bridesmaid — never a bride. This seems to be the fate of the Georgetown Flyers Tyke team at the East Gwillimbury Tournament. For two consecutive years the Flyers have battled their way to the Championship finals only to be beaten by a strong East Gwillimbury team.

On Saturday, Feb. 22 the Flyers travelled to Bradford to take on Aylmer in their first game. Off to a fast start they were up 3-0, but had to hang on to hold off a strong finish by a determined Aylmer club. The final score was 3-2 for Georgetown with goals by R. Hewitt, J. M. Jobb 2, Assists going to S. Wakfer 2, R. Hewitt and M. Jobb.

In their second game they met a Unionville squad who had eliminated Oak Ridges in their first game Friday night and York Simcoe in their second game Saturday morning. Once again in high gear the Flyers swept this one 5-1 giving them assurance of a shot at the championship. Goals were scored in this one by R. Donaldson, assist H. Kewley, R. Hewitt, assist Wakfer. Then M. Jobb scored unassisted, the first of his hat trick — Jobb from Wakfer and Jobb from Hewitt.

In the big game East Gwillimbury iced a strong, fast-skating crew. They had earned their stop in this one by eliminating Newmarket in their first game Friday night and Belmont earlier Saturday. Despite desperate Flyer attacks, and many almost goals, they bowed 3-0 to the hometown team Needless to say, we're hoping next year will be our year.

Scott Wakfer received the MVP trophy for Georgetown turning in 3 fine games of two way hockey. Mike Jobb was our
