Families of Georgetown's youngest puck chasers the Tykes, expressed their appreciation for the time and guidance given to the youngsters by the Long family and coaches this season with token gifts at a wrap-up party Friday.

Acting on their behalf, Mayor Wheldon Emmerson presented Mrs. Doreen Long with a bouquet of mums with a fabric design tray, and husband Norm Long, who is planning a visit to Germany this summer was given a gift package of four French, German, Italian and Spanish dictionaries plus a sweater. Long and Brian James were presented with wallets and two coaches Murray Smith and Paul Ward were given sweaters.

Using just 10 players Georgetown beat Elmira 4-3, Hespeler 6-2 and then with just an hour's rest, Streetsville 1-0 in the Grand Championship battle to gain the trophy.

Among a number of matters discussed at the recent meeting of the Board of Directors was the proposal of town council to reactivate a municipal recreation committee. As a result of this discussion, a letter endorsing this program has been sent to council from the Georgetown & District YM-YWCA.

On top of that, a Georgetown

Georgetown Golf & Country Club is represented at the Sportsmen's Show this week. The local club has a booth at the show again located beside the large PGA booth where free golf lessons are available. Here, through video tape, duffers can watch a replay of their own golf swing.

Arrange Golf Lessons Hope Archery Too

The sports scene is busy at the Y right now; Tuesday, March 25 marks the end of the badminton season and the beginning of golf lessons — a sure sign that spring must be close. For the last four months, a group of almost fifty badminton enthusiasts has met weekly and coupled fun with exercise. The excellent response to this Y program may result in two nights a week for badminton next season!

Halton Golf & Country Club will hold four golf lessons under the auspices of the YM-YWCA beginning this coming Tuesday. If you are one of those who has always thought about golfing, but has never done anything about it, now is your chance.
