

Euchre, Penny Sale Draws 32 Tables to Ballinafad

The euchre and Penny Sale sponsored by the Ballinafad Women's Institute was an outstanding success. There were 32 tables of euchre in play. Winners were ladies Mrs. Ola Robinson, Mrs. Jean Stewart, and Mrs. Wheeler with the consolation going to Mrs. McPherson. Prizes for the men went to Dave Williams and R. McEllin, Marion Lindsay and R. McEllin winning the consolation. Mrs. Jesse McEnery, Mrs. Given and Mrs. Slessorates had charge of the penny sale and reported a brisk sale for the tickets which were all sold out. Lucky ones in the draws for the gifts were as follows coffee pot, Mrs. D. McLean, ornaments Blayne Hillock; Tea towels Mrs. F. McCutcheon; Tulips and Vase: Mrs. N. Sinclair; Men's T-Shirt: Mrs. P. Raine; Men's Sox, A. Ashton; Groceries, Norman Sinclair; Oven Mitts and Pan: Albert Carter; Men's Sox: Tom Given; Men's Sox: Tom Hamilton; Tea towels and rubber gloves, Karen Shortill; Decorated Cake: Helen McPherson; Gallons on Oil: Murray Stamp; Dish pan and detergent: Irene Harkley; Men's Sox: Irene Harkley; Set of Bowls: Karen Shortill; Can of ham: Ethel Agnew; Apron: Jerry Dewar; Juicer: Mrs. Reta Shortill; Roses and vase: Mrs. C. Plouffe; Groceries: Mr. Slessor; Knitted baby set: Bonnie Kirkwood; Jewellery: Mary Pedverse; Gloves: Carole Anne Shadney; thermos jars: Mrs. Slessorates; Bubble bath: Mrs. Albert Smith; Oven mitts and bake pan: Mrs. Dorothy Blackburn; Crocheted dollies: Mrs. E. Switzer; Apron: Mrs. Noble; Men's Gloves: Mrs. Bass; Homemade bread: Murray Stamp; Cookie jar: Mrs. Slessorates; Tea Pot: Karen Shortill. The W.I. appreciates the kind consideration of the people in regards that the party was a little late in starting, due to the fact there were more tables to set up to accommodate all the players. The husbands of the W.I. members present helped considerably in passing a lunch and tidying up afterwards. With the help of all it was a very worthwhile project.

During the service of worship on Sunday, Rev. Mr. Johnston conducted the service of admission to member of the Session, Mrs. Betty Snow. Mr. Donald Blair of Waterloo was the guest speaker and spoke on behalf of the Alcohol and Drug Concerns, Inc.

Two beautiful baskets of flowers graced the front of the Church in loving memory of the late Mrs. Annie McEnery, who will be sadly missed in all Church activities.

The UCW served a cup of tea to the mourners and friends in the basement of the Church after the funeral on Wednesday, of the late Mrs. McEnery.

MONTY HYDE

Mr. and Mrs. Jamieson motored to Pictou on Thursday to attend the funeral of Leo's aunt, who died suddenly the previous Monday. We extend sympathy to Mrs. Jamieson Sr. in the loss of a sister.

The girls of the Homemaking Club met for the seventh time in the Community Centre, Saturday forenoon. The roll call answered to 'Why I chose this particular colour for my dress.' The record books were passed around and the girls were shown how to slip stitch and the correct way to sew on a button. It was announced the achievement day would be on May 24th in Hillcrest Church, Ashgrove.

One day last week Mr. Osborne decided to take a walk to the back of his farm. On entering the woods to his surprise he came upon a litter of puppies that had been abandoned by their mother. Two of them had been frozen to death, two others were next thing to death and died later. The fifth one was given nourishment and warmth and later taken to the Vet for medical attention. Latest reports were the little puppy is doing well and is Mr. Osborne's pride and joy as he is a great lover of animals especially horses and dogs.

The EB-HO Riding Club held a clinic on Sunday at the Erin fair grounds. The turnout was terrific with over 120 spectators. Guest speaker was Mike Leppard from Georgetown. Gord Secord, a blacksmith and quarter horse breeder from Oakville brought his quarter horse stallion to demonstrate hoof care and showmanship at halter. Carol and Bryn Robertson from Hillsburgh brought along their two horses to show the proper method of performing Western games. Showing and training tips for the Western pleasure horse were given by Di Duncan, Gord Secord and Jim Corbell.

The English pleasure horse class was demonstrated by Stan Wellington, Danny Hall and Francis Smith. The Western reining pattern was demonstrated by Jim Corbell riding his horse 'Indio's Martin', while Mike Leppard explained to spectators the finer points to look for in a well trained reining horse. Door prizes were given out between each event and the grand prize was a saddle blanket.

Refreshments were looked after by Ruth Burt and Bruno Carmelos of Hillsburgh. The next club activity will be a trail ride and steepchase day at Stan Wellington's in April.
