AN OPEN LETTER TO PRICE CONSCIOUS HOMEMAKERS

"I believe the public's enthusiastic response to our 'New Look' policy is based on three factors."

1) EVERYDAY LOW PRICES on items throughout our stores, items that you buy most often, which are priced the same every day of every week. A manufacturer's price change due to a change in his costs is the only reason we would change our price. If it is a price reduction we always pass it along to our customers.

2) WEEKLY FEATURES—are "opportunity buys" you see listed in Loblaws weekly ads. Every item is chosen with you in mind. These features are top quality, well accepted brands—excellent value. By shopping wisely and "stocking up" on the specials you really need, you can give your food budget a tremendous boost.

3) HONESTY IN ADVERTISING—WE HAVE WHAT WE ADVERTISE. Loblaws never tries to lure you into our stores with "bargain" merchandise that you can't buy once you get there. At Loblaws, in most cases, you will find adequate supplies of all our advertised items. In the one instance where we do run short, you are entitled to a Loblaws "Rain Check" from the Loblaws store manager. The "Rain Check" allows you to buy the advertised item at the advertised price within 10 days.

If you happen to find food shopping "fairly frustrating" may I suggest that you join the thousands of shoppers who have switched to Loblaws in recent weeks. I believe you'll appreciate the difference, and I'd like to have your comments. Just drop a card or letter to me at Loblaws Groceries Co., Limited, 545 Lakeshore Boulevard, Toronto 2B.

Thank you for taking the time to read this letter.

Sincerely,

Leon E. Weinstein
