

Awards Presented at Mother, Daughter Banquet

The CGIT and Explorer banquets and daughters sat down to a lovely meal. At the head table were Rev. R.W. Ridley and Mrs. J. Hunter, Mrs. B. McIntyre and daughters Karen Klarsen, Tina McIntyre, CGIT leader Mrs. S. Ash and assistant Mrs. H. Inglis and daughter Betty Campbell and Mary Lynn Inglis. Mrs. J. Hunter was master of ceremonies.

The CGIT hymn and Explorer hymn were sung by the girls. Mrs. Hunter introduced the head table and Mrs. Inglis introduced the CGIT girls and they in turn, their mothers. Mrs. McIntyre introduced the Explorers and they, their mothers. Rev. Ridley asked the blessing.

After all had partaken of the good food, the following toasts were proposed — Karen Klassen to the Riddleys and Rev. Ridley replied; Cheryl Spence to the mothers and Mrs. Marion Rice replied; Dorothy Vanderlinden to the leaders and Mrs. Klassen replied. Betty Campbell thanked the ladies of the kitchen and the girls who served — Linda Ford, Diane Giles, Ellen Duncan, Ellen Hunter, Susan Wheeler, Coreen Cooper and Carolyn Everson. Special note was made by Mrs. Ash that it was Explorer leader Betty Klassen's birthday and all sang Happy Birthday. Beverly Campbell read an address and Alana McIntyre presented Mrs. Klassen with a going away gift.

Molly McIntyre invited all mothers to the graduation and initiation ceremony in the sanctuary. Rev. Ridley opened with prayer and Francis Engleby announced the opening hymn. Rev. Ridley presented Mrs. Inglis with CGIT leader's pin and lanyard.

Mrs. Klassen presented the following: Explorer 1st red star to Marion Roberts, Linda Carney, Diane Spicer, Carol Carney, Jessier Zorge, Pauline Heaton, Yvonne Green.
