

McLean-Fisher Wedding in Boston Presbyterian Church

MR. AND MRS. ROSS McLEAN

Standards of white snapdragons and mauve and white tinted chrysanthemums decorated Boston Presbyterian church on April 5th for the marriage of Marjorie Doreen Fisher and Kenneth Lloyd Ross McLean. Guest pews were decorated with satin bows and mauve tinted chrysanthemums for the candlelight ceremony which took place at seven o'clock.

Rev. Stanley Smith officiated and Mrs. Flora Sloski was organist. Miss Susan Hume and Mrs. Audrey Peddie sang two duets during the service. Wedding Prayer and O Perfect Love.

Given in marriage by her father in a double ring ceremony, the bride wore a sleeveless A-line full length gown of white organza over bridal satin, with lace and seed pearls accenting bodice and skirt. A long sleeved matching coat fell softly into a train and she wore a white organza rose headpiece with rhinestones, which held an elbow length veil. She wore the groom's gift, a heart shaped pearl-centred pendant with matching earrings and carried a cascade of mauve tinted hyacinths centred with a pale mauve orchid.

Her sister, Mrs. Edna Hyatt, Norval, was matron of honour and another sister Miss Verna

Fisher was junior bridesmaid. Misses Betty Bloor, Brampton, and Lois Hunter, Burlington, were bridesmaids for their cousin.

They were identically gowned in mauve chiffon over tulle with empire waists and embroidered trim and carried nosegays of mauve tinted mums and deep purple ribbon. Headpieces of matching material were made in the shape of rosebuds.

The groom's cousin, Stanley McEnery, Limehouse, was the groomsmen. Ushers were the groom's brother, Ron McLean, R R 2, Acton, his cousin Harry Brown, R R 2, Georgetown, and the bride's brother in law, Stan Hyatt, Norval.

At a reception in the church parlour, the bride's mother wore a mauve coat dress of silk shantung with beaded trim, flowered hat and matching shoes and a corsage of yellow sweetheart roses.

Also receiving, the groom's mother wore an aqua blue coat dress ensemble of silk shantung braid and bead trim, flowered hat and matching shoes and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses.

Guests attended the wedding from London, Fergus, Aylmer, Tara, Drayton, Markdale, and Brampton, Acton, Georgetown, Millon, Niagara Falls, Burlington, Erindale, and surrounding districts and included Mr. and Mrs. Donald McLean, R R 2, Acton, grandparents of the groom. Gordon Hume was master of ceremonies at the reception.

For a honeymoon trip to Ottawa, the bride wore a navy and white crepe coat dress ensemble, matching accessories, and a mauve orchid corsage.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Lloyd Fisher, R R 3, Georgetown, and is a receptionist-typist with P. Graham Bell Associates. The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McLean has his own barbering business in Acton. They are living in their new home at R R 2, Acton.

Prior to their marriage, the bride was honoured with miscellaneous showers by Mrs. Frank Whitnee, Mrs. Lloyd McEnery, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hunter, Mrs. Harry Shortill and Miss Donna Shortill and at a community shower at Ashgrove.

The couple received a pair of walnut end tables at a presentation and euchre party by friends in the Scotch Block. And Ballinacree community had a dance at which they were presented with a bridge set, room divider and a purse.

Get well wishes to Mrs. Maurice Brown who has been a patient in Peel Memorial Hospital for the past week.

The Starlight Group of Hillcrest United Church held their May meeting in the fellowship room on Monday evening, May 5, with thirteen members and one guest present. The guest speaker for the evening was John Wilson of Hometown Florists, who gave a very informative talk and demonstration on flower arrangements and corsages. Following the demonstration lucky draws were made on the floral displays with the lucky ladies being as follows: Mrs. William Dufour, Mrs. Leslie King, Mrs. Charlie LeRiche and Mrs. Marie Wilson.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. Jim Tynor. It was announced that the ladies of Hillcrest would be entertaining the ladies or Bethel and Eden on Wednesday evening, May 28, with the Starlight Group in charge of the lunch. The devotional hour was in charge of Mrs. Charlie LeRiche. Mrs. LeRiche also read a poem entitled "I'm a bachelor mother."

The next meeting will be held on Monday evening June 2. The ladies will meet at the church and journey on from there to the Kelso Conservation Park Museum. Following the tour of the museum they will return to the church for a pot-luck lunch. The meeting closed with prayer and lunch was served by Mrs. C. Ingrid.

— Mrs. Jim Hamilton
