

Nation, Community Benefits From Varied Legion Programs

by Ralph Hayes

Last week we published some information on eligibility to membership of the Legion. In consequence, there were phone calls and several personal approaches inquiring "What does the Legion do?", "Why a Legion?" and "What has the Legion got for me?"

Briefly, the Royal Canadian Legion is a bold and vigorous leader in community and national life. First, do not ask what you can get from the Legion. Ask instead what you can give to others. The Legion is 275,000 members who have a desire to help any veteran or dependent in need of assistance. This is the heart of the Legion. This is its prime purpose.

Across the nation, the Legion has built low rental housing for senior citizens to the value of five million dollars. For the young people, the emphasis is on scholarships and bursaries. The Legion contributes one hundred and sixty thousand dollars each year towards the nation's largest sponsor of scouts and cubmaster service groups. The Legion also promotes and sponsors air, sea and army cadets. There is no accurate count of how many youngsters play hockey under Legion sponsorship. The last count was over 100,000 in team sports.

Confident of the Future

The Legion is confident of the future. It gambled $150,000 and brought 500 track and field coaches together for intensive training. The result, experts call this annual clinic one of the world's best. A bold venture well executed is typical of today's Royal Canadian Legion has resulted in over 60,000 young Canadians seeking the olympic games and fitness. Over $300,000 a year is raised by Legionnaires in two provinces for public victims. Branches across the nation equip hospital rooms, sponsor blood clinics and operate schools for retarded children.

Second to none! That's the Legion's National Curling Spiel. According to the press, competition for the national trophy rivals any in Canada. Top performances, hard action and good fellowship! This is good legion at play. This is the Legion spirit.

The Branch membership is now approaching 500. Last month six new members were accepted.

At the close of the General Meeting last Thursday, nominations were accepted. Those nominated for president H. Savings, D. Bowman, H. Hale, R. Hawes, B. Collins, L. Boyd; 1st vice, B. Collins, N. Ward, R. Dumper, L. Boyd, R. MacDonald; 2nd vice, N. Ward, L. Boyd, G. King; for executive, R. Stephens, B. Hill, B. Lantz, R. Hawes, M. Lorusso, L. Boyd, F. Chamberlain, J. Johnson, H. Scott, R. Dart and Crib Finished

The men's industrial dart and cribbage leagues are associated with the branch by the fact that so many members are also Branch members. Wednesday nights during the winter are "dart nights" at the Branch where the league fights their weekly battles for superiority while on Mondays the cribbage league moves into the Branch and Mondays become crib night.

Last Friday night was the wind up of the season for both leagues. The members and wives enjoyed a banquet and dance. During the evening trophies were presented to champions of the year. League president Bernie Dore assisted by Joe Poirier and Jack King kept busy during the whole evening.

The Rocky Lorusso memorial trophy has become the league championship trophy. This was won by the panthers captained by Tony Brunski. The panthers have taken the league championship 6 times in the last 7 years.

John Haines won the darts singles while D. Lawson and A. Onell carried away the double trophy.

In cribbage, Smith & Stone led by J. Koloski were the team winners. Singles went to B. James, doubles to R. Finlay and D. Hewitt. The playoff champs for darts, Erin shamrocks; in cribbage, Provincial Paper two.

Lifted the Trophy

More on darts, Saturday the Branch ladies returned from Port Credit with the Zone dart trophy. Branch 120 'B' team which lifted the trophy is Reta Rudiger, Maureen Finlay, Joyce Markham, Ev Johnson and Jan Emmerson. This team will enter provincial competition at Chatham Saturday June 7.

Runners up for the zone contest was another Branch 120 team, Ann Nicholson, Vi Coburn, Maud Norrie, N. Johnson. Twenty dart players entered from 120.

Don't forget to be on parade on Sunday, June 1st at the Georgetown post office. This is the annual Decoration Parade. The 1st Georgetown Cub, Scout and Venturers group have come up with a wonderful idea for after the parade. Why not take the family to Cedarvale Park and enjoy barbecued chicken prepared by the group. This way you'll enjoy a carefree meal and help the organization promoting it.

With the Peel County Gents on the bandstand, the Saturday night dance had to be a success. The prize winners — J. Gilchrist, G. Michal, Jean Reid. Next week you will enjoy the Country Rhythm Boys.

Women's Council Officers Voted In For Second Term

At the annual meeting of the Local Council of Women held on May 23 at the home of Mrs. Robert Jones, 6 Orchard Blvd., the previous year's executive was re-elected to office.

In the absence of Mrs. Anne Pritchard, Mrs. Florida Nodwell presided.

A Local Council can exist only through the affiliation of other local women's organizations, a minimum of six such being required, and at one meeting a year, usually the annual one reports featuring a summary of the work of their particular group are given. This being the appointed meeting, such reports were received from a number of the affiliated groups.

Mrs. Nodwell expressed thanks to those giving reports and to all officers and members for their various contributions over the past year.

Mrs. C. B. Dick gave the report from the Canadian Association of Consumers, reviewing the lead articles in the current issue of Consumer News.

Mrs. A. M. Sutherland, who convenes the standing committee on education, again stressed the emphasis being placed on the study of human rights as applied to children, aimed at making all educational facilities equally available to all Canadian children. The plight of the native Indian and Eskimo children in this regard was cited. Tea hostesses were Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Nodwell.

Rainy Weather Means Picnic Lunch Inside

A pleasant time was spent when the Sunday School children and the congregation had a picnic lunch, indoors on account of weather, after church last Sunday. Rev. F. N. Young said Grace before all ate from a well-laden buffet table.

Mrs. Crichton made a presentation to Mrs. Gisby for her long and untiring efforts in Sunday School work and Rev. Young presented a gift to Bill and Joy Henry who are moving to Midland. Both have been good workers in the church, but we hope to have them back of ten.

Sunday school disbanded for the summer months last Sunday. Mrs. Crichton, superintendent, chaired a short program when Mrs. Gisby read scripture, Laura Stevens played an organ solo, Mrs. A. Benton impressed on the children God's beauties in nature, and Linda Linham was organist for several well-known hymns.

The WMS met at the home of Mrs. J. Crichton last Thursday evening with nine attending and Mrs. Mitchell in charge. Mrs. Crichton read scripture from Mark 1 and Mrs. Kirkpatrick led in prayer. Mrs. Sanford read articles written by Wm. Lloyd for study. Text word worthy was answered by president, was presented with an Institute cup and saucer.

Mrs. Robert Thoms, Mrs. J. Staddon, Mrs. Stuart Hall, Mrs. J. Standish, Mrs. W. Lawson and Mrs. W. R. Lawson, attended the W.I. District annual meeting held in Boston Presbyterian Church, on Wednesday, May 21.

An afternoon of euchre was enjoyed by those who attended the annual lilac tea, sponsored by the members of St. John's Church Guild, on Thursday, May 22.

Prize winners were Mrs. Clarence McPherson and Mrs. Clare Wilson of Silvercreek, Mrs. Lily Maybanks, Mrs. A. Kershaw and Mrs. I. Davidson of Georgetown.

Mr. Edward Hicken held the lucky ticket and won a basket of groceries. Tea was served, and the homemade baking quickly vanished, from the bake sale table.
