

"LEAPIN' LIZARDS, A FROG RACE" — Lawrence Allan proudly displays the Croaker Cup emblematic of the frog jumping championship at Park Public School, an honour earned when his long-legged leaper 'Hoppy' outjumped 10 other frogs in a schoolyard 'show-down'. The contestants were captured in local waters, and the trophy was the handiwork of some Park School pupils interested in promoting frog Olympics. Some 400 pupils cheering for their favourites, helped make the jump-a-thon an exciting affair. Needless to say the champ was swamped with offers to turn pro — literally swamped.
