

Kin Hospital Gift Will Benefit Heart Patients

The Kinsmen Club of Georgetown at their Monday dinner meeting voted to purchase a P.H. meter for Georgetown hospital. The machine, which costs $2,800 is most valuable for blood analysis to detect certain defects in blood.

Most area hospitals have such equipment which assists in more speedy and accurate treatment for coronary patients. The Kinsmen are anxious to assist in supplying such public needs from their fund raising activities and local doctors put this machine at the top of the priority list.

Five past presidents held the chair for various parts of the meeting. Harry Levy, Bill Sunucks, Trevor Moores, Bob Collett and Dean Taylor.

Among past members attending were Bern Middleton, Jack Kenzie, Colin Ray, Ken Milne, George Scinski, George Baker, George Mundy. Guests at the meeting included Fred Hank, Don McColeman, Klaus Beecher and Fred Thomsett. The latter, father-in-law of late club member Bob White, is a past president of the Rotary Club in Ealing, a London, England suburb.

Gary Alton reported the sale of lawn fertilizer netted the club $276 and Ron Roberts gave a report on ways and means. It was reported that Harry Levy has won the district bulletin award and that the club placed first in the 14-club zone in overall efficiency. George Miehme gave a report on the Kinsmen convention in Sarnia.

Andy Michasiw led off the meeting with O Canada and Paul Evans the Kin song. Gary Alton gave grace and Al Murphy was sergeant at arms. Clive Searle was joker and Wally Scinski mystery man.

After the meeting a waddi tournament was held with the team of Hugh Powell and Warren McLay winning out over Dave McLeod and Andy Michasiw in the finals. In a eucure tournament Art Ellis and Russ Diegel were the winning pair.

Outhit Rivals, Giants Still Drop Two Games

Georgetown Giants, who have still to be outhit in a ball game after three starts this season, went down to their second straight defeat Sunday in Campbellville. Giants scored twice in a 8th inning rally but failed to catch Campbellville who won the Halton Intermediate Baseball League meeting 5-3.

Giants outhit the Merchants 12 to 10.

Mitchell, was given the win, while Bernie Dore took the loss. Both gave way to relief pitchers in the late going, Mitchell leaving in favor of Harry Hamilton in the 9th, and Dore relinquishing the mound to Rick Maloney in the 8th.

The winners scored two runs in the first inning on two hits and a pair of fielders' choices, and added three in the 7th when Dredge homered, and then back to back hits were followed by a fielding error.

Giants didn't score until the 6th when Jim James, John Collins and Chico Ciaschi hit safely to produce one run. In the ninth hits by Jim McGill, Phil Marzo, Roy Shultis, and Jim James pushed over two more.

In Georgetown park last Wednesday, Burlington Cardinals and the Giants fought in a tooth and claw battle that ended 3-2 for Burlington after five innings.

Gary Nickerson was on the mound hurling for the Cards while Mike Tost was the loser. He was pulled in the fifth when Bernie Dore came on.

Giants' only run came in the second inning on singles by Don Lindsay and Mike Tost.

Georgetown outhit Burlington in this one four to three.
