Georgettes Easy Winner So Far

Georgetown Georgettes opened in Oakville last Thursday night after being rained out at home the previous Monday. The Georgettes have since played at home, and in two starts the new league has yet to prove its strength over the Halton Ladies' Softball League which they played in last year.

Georgettes beat Oakville Auto Supply 15-9 and then trounced the supposedly powerful Dixie club 36-4.

Georgettes will play at home again this coming Monday, Burlington the visiting club. They travel to Oakville tonight to play Bronte Lakeshore Esso.

The Georgetown team is selling monthly 50-50 draw tickets which will enable them to buy new green and white uniforms. The winner of the May draw was Mrs. P. Baker of 59 Mowbray Crescent, Acton.

The Georgettes lineup includes: Marilyn Eagles, Eve Smith, Peggy Given, Sue Quinn, Georgia Lewis, Jane McNally, Ann Marchmont, Adelle Hickey, Judy Shepherd, Brenda Hulme, Janet Armstrong, Pat McElroy,

SECOND SENATOR — Allan Teeter, right, became the second Georgetown Jaycee to receive a senatorship when the honour was bestowed on him at the recent Jaycee president's ball at Georgetown Golf and Country Club. The presentation came as a surprise to the past president, past district vice president. A senatorship is the highest possible honour available to a Jaycee. First Georgetown Jaycee to receive a senatorship was Connell Smith, left, who was presented with a life membership in the senate of the Jaycees in 1967.

New Entry Good But Glen Wins

The new entry in the Inter-County Fastball League, Norval Juniors, proved tough opponents for the powerful Glen Williams club Friday night in a league game won by the Glen 3-2 in Glen Williams.

Neil Best, relieved by Joe Shaw, gained the win, while John Holtby took the loss.

The Glen and Norval both of whom play their home games in the Glen Park, will clash again Sunday, June 22.

Coached by Ike Inglis and managed by Mike George, the Norval Juniors have shown promise in their first season to date despite their record of two victories against four defeats.

Norval's home games are Friday. The Glen's are Sunday.
