BANTAM BATS BELT OAKS, FOURTH WIN

Georgetown Bantam batters rattled Oakville pitchers for 12 hits Thursday to chalk up a 12-5 victory, their fourth win in six starts this season.

Georgetown was active in the ninth frame when they pounded out seven hits for nine runs.

Brian Beaumont got the win started for the locals and went 4 1/2 innings before being lifted for Gord Williams. Williams got stronger as the game went on pitching four innings of hitless ball as the Georgetown infield sparkled in barking him up. Bert Osborne was behind the plate.

Steve Graham swung a big bat going two for four, both triples. Gord Williams hit three for four including one triple, and Barry James smashed a double in hitting two for four.

Burlington, the only club to beat Georgetown Bantams to date, registered their second win over the locals Friday, June 6 a 6-0 blanking.

Burlington opened their scoring in the top of the fourth inning with three runs and were never threatened by Georgetown. Both teams had five hits. Barry James and Steve Graham both had two for two nights.

Sunday Fastball Tilt Crucial One in Glen

Fastball fans will be in Glen Williams Sunday night when the Glen men host the Norval club in a crucial Intercountry Fastball encounter. The game became more important this week when Norval captured 2 victories from Belwood while Glen Williams slipped a notch, losing to Hillsburgh.

Norval improved their record to a respectable two wins and two losses with their Belwood wins.

Playing at home Friday they beat Belwood 9-8 though they had them down 7-0 at one point. John Holby went most of the way for the winners. Robson and Moody worked the last two frames.

Tuesday of last week they beat Belwood 5-1 in Belwood as Bob Robson went the distance. They'll play Hillsburgh tomorrow night before their Sunday night meeting with the Glen.

Glen Williams led Hillsburgh 5-0 before dropping a 10-6 to Hillsburgh, Monday. They were rained out Sunday when they were slated to play at home, but will go against Rockwood tonight.

The Glen has two wins and three setbacks.

MANAGING WATER DEPT.

R. KENNETH FAULKNER

Kenneth Faulkner 24 Delrex Blvd. N. commenced duties Monday in the new position of water department manager. He assumes charge of billing, pump house and the water department office in the municipal building. Mr. Faulkner was an accountant with Chubb-Mosler-Taylor in Brampton before accepting the job here. The Georgetown Water Commission a recently created body which came into being this year, includes Winston Smith, Mayor Wheldon Emmerson and chairman Roy Ballentine.

13-YEAR-OLD SCORES ACE

Thirteen year old Peter Bruton, son of Georgetown Golf & Country Club director Doug Bruton, registered that club's third hole-in-one of the 1969 golf season there Saturday.

Playing with Mike Podger, Peter pulled off a phenomenal ace by sinking his tee shot on the 200 yard par three 7th hole with a driver.

His dad, was the pro at Georgetown Golf & Country Club before accepting the profession's job at Northwood, Toronto.

Harris' Ace Helps Keep Lead in Golf Competition

Bob Harris and Terry Hay have the inside track on their club golf championships at North Halton and Georgetown Golf and Country Clubs respectively.

Harris was helped to the first round lead at North Halton by a hole in one registered on the Par 3, 151 yard fourth hole there. He finished the round with a 71 to lead former champ Don Curry by seven strokes. Jack Toth is third with an 81 and Ted Worrall is in contention at 85.

The four rounds at North Halton are spread out over the season, with the second round being played this Sunday.

In the Harris three were Harvey Chappel and Bill Schenk.

At Georgetown Golf where 3 rounds have been played Terry Hay has a seven stroke advantage on his closest pursuer Terry Hancock.

Both titles are decided by 4 rounds of medal play. The Georgetown Golf championship will conclude this Sunday.

Georgettes Win for Fourth Straight Time

Georgetown's women's softball team, The Georgettes, are still looking for the tough competition they anticipated from Oakville league teams.

Monday they beat Burlington 20-4 in Glen Williams park even though they came up with one of their poorer games.

Eve Smith pitched the entire game for the Georgettes got a good performance at the plate from Marilyn Eagles. She rapped four hits in six trips.

Georgettes played Bronte Lakeshore Esta, Thursday, pounding them 15-3, in support of Marilyn Eagles sharp pitching.

Tonight they are in Oakville to play the White Oaks Texaco team, with hopes of a fifth straight victory.

Throw Out Tourney Men's Day Feature

A Throw Out tourney which allowed entrants to discard their worst holes saw Jim Linton card a low gross of 23, and Holly Godfrey a low net of 16 at North Halton Golf & Country Club, Thursday.

Also in the low gross prizes were Dave McNally, Eric Ross, Harvey Chappel, Ken Liley, Harry Sanderson, Joe Penny, John Thomas and Ed Wakefield.

Other low net winners were Ken Allan, Jim Kennedy, John Monteith, Gord Campbell, Archie Moore, Mike Williams, Frank Howard and Ab Findley.

High netter was Ron Burton. A Kicker Tourney on the previous men's night which allowed golfers to replay any three shots saw Harry Sanderson take the win with a 30.

Bruce Dyer Top Driver for Karts

POOL OPEN BY END JUNE

Georgetown swimming pool should be open by the end of June according to manager Don Gosling. The pool is being painted right now, and by Thursday (today) the water will start gushing in.

The only appointment made by the Swimming Pool Board so far, is the hiring of Christine Sargent as supervisor instructor.

Standards Spoil Cycles' Win Splurge

Georgetown Cycle & Sports tasted defeat for the first time this season when Standard Products took advantage of a number of errors to win 7-3 Monday night. Cycle & Sports sit atop the seven team loop with a four and one record.

In the other game Monday, Combines took a 14-3 thrashing from Benson and Hedges as winning pitcher Ferguson muffed Combine bats.

Exchange House beat General Fireproofing 8-7 Wednesday, June 11 with Cooper's home run, the big blow. The winning run was pushed across, however, by Haines' single. Bill

Robson was the winning pitcher. A June 9 thriller saw Cycle & Sports dig in, and with great defensive play, pitching and hitting, come from a 10-1 deficit to edge Benson & Hedges 11-10. Ray See was the winner.

Wally Brennan was the winner June 8 when Erin doubled the score on Combines, 6-3.
