The Telegram's 'Action Line' didn't get any action out of Esqueving council Monday night, when a letter informed council that three residents of the 5th Line were complaining about stagnant water, flooding and dead animals in the water, of a ditch behind their land.

Reeve George Currie stated, "That's private property and it's a civil matter between neighbours." The three residents S. Godin, A. Duguay and C. Clendening, of lot 15 in the 5th Line, have repeatedly complained of this ditch on the property of Miss T. St. Jean. Each time council has given them the same reply they gave the Telegram.

The letter stated there were dead rats and muskrats lying in two feet of water in the ditch. Assistant clerk Delmar French stated he had heard the ditch was being cleaned out right now, and would clear up the situation.

Social & Personal Miss Helena Hilts and Miss Robin Sim, both of Toronto, returned home recently from a vacation in Bermuda.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Malfitana travelled from Kenosha, Wisconsin on the weekend to be Godparents at the christening of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Carney's newly adopted son Thomas Peter. Mrs. Carney and Mrs. Malfitana are sisters. The christening took place at Holy Cross Church followed by dinner at the Carney home. Out of town guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Tom Horcroft of Oakville, Mr. and Mrs. J. Demaline of Burlington, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Carney of Hamilton and a total of 10 little cousins.

Mrs. Henry Isley of 7 Margaret Street had a big surprise on June 7 when she received a visit from Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Isley whom she hadn't seen for fifty-three years. They came from Beaver Lodge, Alberta near the Alaska Highway. Mr. Isley is eighty one years old and the youngest brother of the late Henry Isley of town. He is the only surviving member of the family. While here they attended the Isley reunion at Breslau on the Sunday with around one hundred in attendance.

Thursdays night's collection at St. Paul's United Church, Brampton brought over $16,000 more into the coffers making the total now collected $70,000.

Because there are over $30,000 pledges still outstanding, Oxfam officials are confident they will hit their goal. More than 1500 pledges are still to be heard from.

These can be taken or mailed to any of the Royal Banks in Brampton, Bramalea or Georgetown. Receipts will be given to those who show up in person at the banks.

St. Andrew's Church Picnic at Blue Springs Leadens skies and sopping grass couldn't dampen the spirits of a fine group of novice and veteran picnickers as St. Andrew's United held its congregational picnic at Blue Spring on Sunday.

Rev. Kelvin Johnston conducted a brief worship service assisted by Sandra Hornby at the organ. The camp pavilion proved its worth after lunch as a steady drizzle began to fall. Between showers, Jack Reed and his intermediate boys, Ross Taylor, Stuart McDonald, Doug Wodhams, Steven Burns and Robbie Patterson were able to carry out a varied program of sports.

Mr. and Mrs. Norm Wodhams were stalwart helpers, looking after refreshments. With every one pitching in to help, the outing turned into a reasonably roaring success instead of fizzling out due to the rain. Among race winners were: Mixed shoes, 7 and 8 — Janet Burns, David Townsend; Peanut race, 9 and 10 — Rhonda Murphy, Karen Tessier; Wheelbarrow, 9 and 10 — Doug Timpson

The youth, age 17 and two friends, also from Georgetown were visiting a girl friend in Streetsville when they decided to board a train stopped at the Streetsville siding. Mississauga police said the Georgetown boy and one of his companions climbed atop a box car. The friend jumped off before the train started, leaving the local youth aboard the moving cars.

When the speed reached 30 miles per hour, he fell onto a gravel section between east and west bound tracks. The train bound for London, had stopped at Streetsville to drop off three cars.
