

United, Anglicans Plan Joint Picnic for Churches

Plans are underway for a combined picnic for both churches. It was decided to have it before school finishes so June 22nd is set. At such short notice it is hard to make reservations but all families will be notified of place etc. Many years ago the churches always enjoyed the picnic together so it is hoped that will be revived this year.

The church ladies enjoyed their annual summer bus trip last Tuesday. They went to London for the day and toured the Kayser-Roth and Kellogg plants as well as a drive through the beautiful Western University grounds. Of special interest is the fact the stone for some of those beautiful buildings came from our own local quarry. The trip was planned by Mrs. Paul Wagstaffe and Mrs. C. Barth.

On Sunday evening, June 8th the St. Alban's and St. Paul's chorals held what they termed a Rock in service. The attendance wasn't large but those who did attend enjoyed the singing of the old hymns to modern music. Two favourites were "Mine Eyes have Seen the Glory" and "When the Saints Come Marching In". This was a project of young Andrew Dewhurst, who has been organist for the services while Mrs. Williams has been on holiday in England.

We extend congratulations to Joy Haines who was a graduate of McMaster University this year. The ceremony was televised and it was thrilling for those at home to see a local girl in it. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Haines attended as well as her brother, wife and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Haines, Jeff, Terry, Scott and Kris. She plans going to Hamilton Teachers College.

The children from the Crippled Children's Hospital in Toronto had their annual outing to the Dillon estate last Saturday where they enjoyed a day in the country in lovely surroundings, lovely food and could even fish in the pond, although they are in wheelchairs.

The Cub pack enjoyed a weekend camping at Terra Cotta Conservation area.

The congregation of St. Alban's enjoyed breakfast last Sunday morning in the parish hall with the men of the congregation looking after it.

We extend congratulations and best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Jack French who were married

Mrs. Roy Break and Mrs. Paul May were in charge of the devotional period pertaining to "Flowers of the Bible." Mrs. John Hamilton and Mrs. Melbourne Bell put on a short skit called "A bit for you and a bit for me" which was very humorous. Two solos were sung by Mrs. Jack Fries and her two daughters, Laurie and Debbie who were accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Harry Lowden. Mr. Walter Laughlin of Dixie Road, showed a number of slides and gave a very informative talk on a trip to the West Coast and to Hawaii. Following the program Mrs. Wilmer Mason invited the guests downstairs where the program was completed with a guessing game of a variety of queer noises, which were demonstrated in a closed room by Mrs. Bell as Mrs. John Hamilton gave the go signal. The groups were divided by a variety of colored ribbons which were presented to them when they entered the church by Mrs. Lloyd Marshall. These ribbons had to match with the ribbons which divided the groups of chairs. Mrs. Wilmer Mason presented each lady with a name card in order to get acquainted with each other. A delicious lunch was served and a social hour enjoyed visiting.

THE BIG SWEEP

Vacuuming the great outdoors was one of the cleanup measures taken when Georgetown got its face washed and hair combed for summer, Saturday. The man at the tiller is Mayor Wheldon Emmerson who instigated a Litter Chase Day here to launch his town beautification program. The litter vacuum was loaned for the day by the "sanitation for the nation" company, G. H. Woods.

Private, as well as public property got the cleanup treatment Saturday and many householders took advantage of the chance to rid their garages, attics and basements of space robbing junk. Making a pickup on Elizabeth street are town workmen Vittorio Secco and Ivan Kaminsky.
